SOUNDS FUNNY

The following from an Iowa paper sound quite wet to us in this dry climate:

"The soaking rains have started the tile running again."

"We are having an abundance of rain now and some to spare. Also a little hail Sunday evening."

POOR EDITOR!

A preacher, at the close of one of his sermons, said: "Let all who are paying their debts stand up." All but one person stood.

"Now," said the preacher, "let those not paying their debts stand up."

The exception, a care-worn, hungry-looking individual, clothed in last summer's suit, slowly got to his feet.

"How is it, my friend," the minister queried, "that you are the only one not able to meet his obligations?"

"Well, you see, I run the 'newspaper,'" he explained meekly, "and the brethren here who stood up are my subscribers, and—"—Boswell (Ind.) Enterprise.

Poor Indiana editor! Come to Oregon, where old subscribers pay up and new ones always coming in—and where folks live forever—almost.

MINING CONVENTION

Sacramento, Calif., has been selected as the seat of the 1924 convention of the American Mining Congress.

A meeting such as this should help focus public interest on mining as one of this nation's greatest industries which stands back of our permanent prosperity.

Mining is no longer the speculation it was in the days of '49, and it is deserving of the encouragement and backing of individuals and financial institutions.

While the history and romance of mining has been largely built up around gold, we must not forget that the more lowly metals such as silver, lead, zinc and copper contribute vastly more to our material wealth than does gold. Production of these metals employs tens of thousands of workmen.

There's always room for one more—one more news item in THE POST.

Mrs. Grace Jackson has returned to her home in Weiser, Idaho, after spending a month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Parke.
