NEWS FROM COURT HOUSE

The Board of Equalization is in session this week.

The court house will be closed today on account of the fair.

Court House Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Janney have returned from a delightful trip into the Upper Umpqua Basin. Much of the way must have been rough traveling for they "packed in" on two burros. Mr. Janney is the abstract man in the sheriff's office.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyer were "entertained" at a charivari and joy ride Monday night just after their return from a honeymoon trip to Portland. The procession started at the Tetherow home and proceeded to Central Point. From there they went to Medford, finally returning to Central Point, where the joy-makers enjoyed a treat.

Miss Leora Godward, of the sheriff's office, has returned from her vacation. The party, including her father and sister-in-law, visited both Bandon and Marshfield.

Miss Linnie Hanscom of the assessor's office is taking a two-weeks vacation and will visit Seattle, British Columbia and Vancouver.

Wm. P. Gray of Portland and Elsie May Grazer of Medford were married Wednesday morning by Judge Gardner. While the ceremony was being performed the girls from the clerk's office secured some rice with which they showered the bride party as they left the building. Before 2:30 that afternoon three other couples applied for marriage licenses but, failing to produce any witnesses, they were forced to postpone the nuptial rites.

Mrs. Carter, county school superintendent, is busy this week in the educational department at the county fair grounds.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Licenses to wed were issued to the following couples during the week:

Clairence F. Culver, Bridge, Ore.; Elizabeth Hutton, Medford.

J. S. Tobin, Grants Pass; Virginia M. Parson, Medford;

Ernest E. Wolford, Marie A. Colt, Medford.

Robert Monroe Harrison, Selma G. Pulford, Medford.

Leo Laverriug, San Francisco; Ellen Slate, Ashland.

Wm. P. Gray, Portland; Elsie May Grazer, Medford.

Albert E. Brown, Sacramento, Calif.; Clara Murray, Ashland.

Charles Hawry, Sarah Snell, Medford.

In the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Jackson County.

In the matter of the estate of Dennis Duggan, deceased.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned executrix has filed her final report and account in the above entitled matter and the above named Court has fixed October 11th, 1924, at 10 o'clock a. m. at the Court House in Jacksonville, in said County, as the time and place for hearing objections to said final account, and for the settlement thereof.

FIRST VISIT SINCE 1876

Mrs. Henrietta Fick enjoyed last week her first trip to San Francisco since she came to Oregon in 1876. Mrs. Fick was a native of Germany and resided in Iowa before coming to this state.

This trip was made in the car of her son, Fred J. Fick, who, with his wife and daughter, Virginia, and another granddaughter of Mrs. Fick's, Thelma Larsen, made up the party.

They left Jacksonville at five o'clock Sunday morning, reaching Red Bluff, Calif., at 4:30 p. m., having driven 243 miles, and report a new road being built between Donsmuir and Weed. When they left Jacksonville they were wearing sweaters for comfort but the thermometers at Red Bluff registered 104 Monday morning.

Monday they went on to San Francisco, where they visited until Thursday with relatives and enjoyed the sights of the city. Virginia says the aquarium was especially interesting to her and Thelma. They ferried to Oakland and visited friends; also visited Santa Cruz, where their relatives have a private camp at the beach.

Returning, they visited the old mining towns of Redding and Red Bluff. They arrived home Friday night.

The trip was especially planned for Mrs. Henrietta Fick, and was quite different from the trip from San Francisco so many years ago.

MURRAY-BROWN

Albert E. Brown, a Southern Pacific locomotive engineer of Donsmuir, Calif., and Clara Murray, of Ashland, were married at the Presbyterian manse Wednesday, Rev. Edgar performing the ceremony.

PUT DUTY FIRST

No man ever makes a success of a business which he does not put first in his thought and effort. Sometimes we wonder why so many people are failures in life. The reason often is because they put self first and duty last. They are keen about their pleasures, but go about their business in a half-hearted way, working only when they feel like it, and exerting themselves to no greater an extent than is absolutely necessary in order to retain their positions. You never find such men asking for more work to do, or trying to make themselves increasingly useful. The world is not looking for men of that kind. It is looking for men who put duty first and who enter into their work with a determination to make it a success.—John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

Have you attended the Fair?

The Story of After School

By James W. Foley

O, mother, can't I have some cake?
Can't Johnnie have some pie?
Can't we come in—just us—and take
An apple by and by,
If we both wipe our feet off clean
The way you told us to?
And if we run across Bill Green
Can't Billy have one, too?

O mother, have you seen my hat,
The one I wear to play?
And say, ma, where'd I put my bat
And ball the other day?
Can't Johnnie wear my other shoes
Till his own pair get dry?
Do you care, mother, if we use
Your old broom by and by?

We want to use the broom to sweep
The home plate off, you see.
And mother, we want you to keep
Our things for John and me
So we won't lose them when we play—
Our knives and marbles, too.
Won't you please put them all away,
Just as you always do?

If Billy Green should come and knock
At the back kitchen door,
Tell him we're in the vacant block
Right next to Johnson's store.
And let him have my other shoes—
My old ones—so's to play;
He can't play barefoot or we'll lose;
He's got to pitch to-day.

And would you care if Johnnie came
To supper when we're through?
If Bill should pitch a dandy game
Can't I bring him home, too?
If Bill comes to the kitchen door,
Won't you give him some pie,
So he'll be strong and curve 'em more?
Thanks, ma! Good-bye! Good-bye!

The father is a state highway inspector employed on the Ruch road. The big kitchen of the U. S. Hotel building is being used by the family.

FAIR WELL ATTENDED

The County Fair is on in full blast and is drawing the largest crowds in history of Southern Oregon. The weather has been ideal and the attractions are good.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

We were glad to see so many out to Sunday school on Sunday last, and we are hoping to see even more on next Sunday. We plan to organize a new class of 7th and 8th grade girls and boys, with a splendid teacher as their leader. Come out, young folks, and see who your teacher is to be. Morning worship at 11 o'clock sharp. Subject, "The Church that Grew." There will be special music.

We will begin our evening services on Sunday evening at 7:30, and we will be glad to see a large number out at that time.

Due to a misunderstanding in regard to the afternoon service at Uniontown last Sunday, we will say that without fail we will be there on next Sunday at 2:30, the Lord willing.

Edwin H. Edgar, Pastor.

"OUTDOORS" IS OUT

The first (September) number of the new national magazine "OUTDOORS" is out. It contains many lavishly illustrated articles descriptive of natural beauty spots throughout the country. To the motor tourist seeking an interesting objective it is of special value. The scenic pictures are numerous and beautiful, and the text is of unusual interest. Readers who cannot find "OUTDOORS" at their local news stands may secure a copy of the first number by sending ten cents in stamps or coin to "OUTDOORS," 425 Tenth St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Hoyt, who had been visiting her mother at the hotel, accompanied them home.

Miss Kate S. Chapman, who had spent several weeks with Mrs. Finney, departed Thursday morning for Rochester, N. Y., where she will enter the employ of a wholesale millinery house.
