

A CHRISTMAS DREAM.

This dear little body, with the dear little mind in a half unconscious state, wonderfully be accounted for by supposing that the little girl has been out rather too often at night in the course of this Christmas season, and has been allowed to stay rather too late, so as to

TRICHINÆ IN FISH.—The Cologne Gazette states that trichinæ had been found in a pike recently caught in the North Sea, in the neighborhood of Ostend, and that great excitement contained in the dear little body, slumbers at the parlor's fireside, while papa and mamma are very leisurely dressing upstairs for the party to which all the family are invited. It is only to lose her due child's allowance of sleep.

A CHILD'S CHRISTMAS DREAM.

THE director of the mint at Bordeaux, France, has been arrested for substituting galvanized copper bars for silver.

had been occasioned by the discovery. Dr. A. Clendinin, of Ostend, examined a similar fish under the microscope, and found it full of these dangerous parasites. It is supposed that a shoal of these fish had fed on offal in Ostend harbor.