

THE SUN FOR 1880.

THE SUN will deal with the events of the year 1880 in its own fashion, now pretty well understood by everybody. From January 1 to December 31 it will be conducted as a newspaper, written in the English language, and printed for the people.

As a newspaper, THE SUN believes in getting all the news of the world promptly, and presenting it in the most intelligible shape—the shape that will enable its readers to keep well abreast of the age with the least unproductive expenditure of time. The greatest interest to the greatest number—that is the law controlling its daily make-up. It now has a circulation very much larger than that of any other American newspaper, and enjoys an income which it is at a loss to know how to spend liberally for the benefit of its readers. People of all conditions of life and all walks of the kingdom read THE SUN; and they all derive satisfaction of some sort from its columns, for they keep on buying and reading it.

In its comments on men and affairs, THE SUN believes that the only sound policy should be common sense, inspired by genuine American principles and backed by honest purpose. For this reason it is, and will continue to be, absolutely independent of party, class, clique, organization, or interest. It is for all, but of none. It will continue to praise what is good and to promote what is evil, taking care that its language is to the point and plain, beyond the possibility of being misunderstood. It is uninfluenced by motives that do not appear on the surface; it has no opinions to flatter, and no one which may be had by any purchaser for two cents. It has no injudicious and reckless even more than it has unbecomingly words. It abhors frauds, pilferings, and deplorable misdeeds of every species. It will continue throughout the year 1880 to elaborate the first class, first set the second, and discountenance the third. All honest men, with honest convictions, whether sound or mistaken, are its friends. And THE SUN makes no bones of telling the truth to its friends and about its friends whenever occasion arises for plain speaking. These are the principles upon which THE SUN will be conducted during the year to come.

The year 1880 will be one in which no patriotic American can afford to close his eyes to public affairs. It is impossible to exaggerate the importance of the political events which it has in store, or the necessity of resolute vigilance on the part of every citizen who desires to preserve the Government that the founders gave us. The debates and acts of Congress, the utterances of the press, the exciting contests of the Republican and Democratic parties, now nearly equal in strength throughout the country, the varying drift of public sentiment, will all bear directly and effectively upon the twenty-fourth Presidential election, to be held in November. Four years ago next November, the will of the nation, as expressed at the polls, was thwarted by an abominable conspiracy, the promoters and beneficiaries of which still hold the offices they stole. Will the crime of 1876 be repeated in 1880? The past decade of years opened with a corrupt, extravagant and insolent Administration intrusted at Washington. THE SUN did something toward dislodging the gang and breaking its power. The same men are now intriguing to restore their loathsome and themselves to places from which they were driven by the indignation of the people. Will they succeed? The coming year will bring the answers to these momentous questions. THE SUN will be on hand to chronicle the facts as they develop, and to exhibit them clearly and fearlessly in their relations to expediency and right.

Thus, with a habit of philosophical good humor in looking at the minor affairs of life, and in great things a cadaverous purpose to maintain the rights of the people and the principles of the Constitution against all aggressors. THE SUN is prepared to write a truthful, instructive, and at the same time entertaining history of 1880.

Our rates of subscription remain unchanged. For the DAILY SUN, a four-page sheet of twenty-eight columns, the price by mail, post-paid, is 35 cents a month, or $6.50 a year; or, including the Sunday paper, an eight-page sheet of fifty-six columns, the price is 65 cents a month, or $7.70 a year, postage paid.

PURE EULACHON OIL

Procured from the Eulachon Fish, (Thaleichthys Pacificus.) This is a small fish, frequenting some of the waters of British Columbia. The taste of this oil, owing to the careless manner in which it has been prepared by the natives has prevented its use as a remedy, excepting by themselves. Its extraordinary efficacy for all ailments in which Cod Liver Oil has proved so beneficial, induced Messrs. Langley & Co., of Victoria, to employ killed Oil Extractors, and now, by an improved process, a very superior product is obtained, free from objectionable taste or smell. It will be found more palatable than Cod Liver Oil, also, less costly and well worthy of a trial. A supply will be found at Hodge, Davis & Co.'s, who have been appointed agents for its sale in Oregon.
