The Japanese Bazaar at Victoria, B. C., is the delight of tourists, who find there an opportunity to purchase these numerous curios and ornamental pieces of bric-a-brac that are only made by the skillful workmen of Japan. Mr. Charles Gabriel, after a residence of several years in that country had made himself acquainted with the value and character of Jap. misc. goods, selected a stock of porcelain, silks, satins, woodware, lacquered goods, jewelry, fans, and curios and ornaments of all kinds, the largest and most complete ever brought to the Pacific coast. These he displays at the Bazaar in a most attractive manner, and sells them at prices which smaller dealers in such goods in other cities have never been able to offer. Travelers will miss their best opportunity to secure such articles if they neglect to visit the Bazaar.
