

The pin manufacturer never makes a point to get a head.—
Kearney Enterprise.

Beware of the man who is always suspicious of other people. It is more than possible that he judges other people by himself.—Somerville Journal.

A CASE OF CONSCIENCE.

JUNIOR PARTNER (Colde, Cash & Co.)—The salesman in department X says he won't perjure his soul another week by lying about our goods. It will be difficult for us to fill his place.

SENIOR PARTNER—How much is he getting?

JUNIOR PARTNER—Ten dollars a week.

SENIOR PARTNER—Offer him $12 and a commission.—New York Weekly.

AND ILL, TOO.

An observant friend remarks that "L" is the most successful letter—it always ends well.—Munsey's Weekly.

A PLEA FOR ACTION.

CONVICTION—So you think I should come right to the question at once, as delays are dangerous?

BROWN—I most decidedly do. I once knew a man who got shot while beating around the bush.—Drake's Magazine.

It is the enterprising theatrical manager who has a good show in this world.—Boston Courier.

The most popular dentist is the one who extracts teeth without payin'.—Plunder.

THE OREGON LAND COMPANY,

HOTEL PORTLAND, PORTLAND, OR.

Rare Opportunities for Choice Investments.

Money Loaned or Invested for Non-Residents.

CITY OR SUBURBAN PROPERTY, FRUIT, GRAIN AND STOCK FARMS.

REFERENCES—Williams & England Banking Co., Salem; Capital National Bank, Salem; First National Bank, Salem; Oregon National Bank, Portland; Ex-Gov. Thayer, Chief Justice of Supreme Court, Salem; Hon. Van B. DeLashmutt, Banker and Capitalist, Mayor of Portland.

Facts and Figures Upon Application. Address

THE OREGON LAND COMPANY, Hotel Portland, Portland, Oregon.

SALEM. PORTLAND.
ALBANY. ASTORIA.

HONEYMAN, DeHART & CO.,

HARDWARE,

Iron & Steel, Railroad & Miners' Supplies.

Cor. Ash and Second Sts., PORTLAND, OREGON.