City of Ellensburg,

WASHINGTON.

Ellensburg, the county seat of Kittitas county, is a town that shows its growth since four years ago. The population is about 1,500, half of whom came the past year. Its resources are, first, agricultural, second, stock, the territory ranges now feeding 20,000 head. Its minerals well developed are gold, silver, copper, iron, marble, but the greatest is land in various quantities, all kinds, one acre ranging from $1 to $50 per acre.

Ellensburg is the geographical center of Washington. The valley is the center of the county, the town the center of the valley. There are abundant resources to support a large town. The record is that the population will equal 5,000 in a few years. Property has doubled in value annually, and investments made now will bring four-fold returns.
