

BLAINE | BLAINE

WASHINGTON.

THE INTERNATIONAL CITY

Situated on the border where the state of Washington adjoins Canada, offers

Unequaled Advantages for Investments in Real Estate.

The Fairhaven & Southern and the Canadian Pacific Railways will meet at Blaine, and both roads will be running by the middle of July, 1890.

BLAINE

Is backed by a fine farming country, has a splendid land-locked harbor, and scenery unsurpassed in the world.

Building operations are active and real estate is constantly increasing in value.

BLAINE

CHEHALIS, WASHINGTON

On the Northern Pacific Railroad, midway between Portland and Seattle, and directly in the center of Western Washington's finest farming country, only 65 miles from the Pacific ocean by the Willapa harbor route,

IS A WELL-BUILT TOWN.

Has a $10,000 school house, a $20,000 bank building, and other improvements to correspond with the dignity of the county seat of Lewis, one of the richest counties of Washington. Chehalis will be a manufacturing and shipping town of 20,000 people in five years from now. For detailed information, address

SECRETARY BOARD OF IMMIGRATION,
CHEHALIS, WASHINGTON.

CHEHALIS, WASHINGTON