"Some lives are like Horse shoes the more worn the brighter." Busy wives who use SAPOLIO never seem to grow old. Try a cake...

A complete wreck of domestic happiness has often resulted from badly washed dishes, from an unclean kitchen, or from trifles which seemed light as air. But by these things a man often judges of his wife's devotion to her family, and charges her with general neglect when he finds her careless in these particulars. Many a home owes a large part of its thrifty neatness and its consequent happiness to SAPOLIO.

♫ Grocers often substitute cheaper goods for SAPOLIO, to make a better profit. Send back such articles, and insist on having just what you ordered.

AS FAR AS HER MIND WENT.

MISS HIGHMIND—What did you think of Signor Travello, the new tenor?

MISS GIDDYGIRL—Oh, I thought his mustache was simply stunning. —Judge.

MRS. DE FOUR (angrily)—I want you to keep your dog out of my house, Mrs. De Smart. It's full of fleas.

MRS. DE SMART—Mercy on me! Fido! Come here sir! Don't you go into that house again. It's full of fleas.—New York Weekly.

THE TIME AND PLACE.

CLARA—Oh, I have so much to say to you.

MAUDE—And I to you. Let's go to the opera to-night.—Life.

UNCLE SI PUNKIN—I see by the papers, Maria, that the old Five Forks air bein' slowly wiped out by the New Yorkers.

AUNT MARIA—Oh, they be, be they—the shiftless things? Wal, I s'pose they'll be scourin' the cups and sassers next. My, I couldn't endure the dirt o'them city folks.—American Grocer.

HOW SMART ARE YOU?

If you are pretty bright you will stand a good chance of winning a prize in the West Shore Word Contest. The five persons sending in the largest lists of words made from the phrase "ILLUSTRATED WEST SHORE" will receive the following prizes in the order of the length of their lists, the longest list taking the first prize.

LIST OF PRIZES.

FIRST PRIZE—A scholarship in the Portland Business College, or the Salem Business College, the leading business educational institutions in the Pacific northwest, good for either the business or short hand courses, and available at any time during the year 1891. Value, $30.00.

SECOND PRIZE—Superb freehand crayon portrait, size 25x30, executed by the well-known portrait artist, Mr. E. W. Moore, at his studio in Portland. The winner of this prize can have his own portrait made, or that of any relative or friend. Value, $50.00.

THIRD PRIZE—An elegant oil painting of Safrano Roses, executed by the celebrated floral artist, Mrs. J. T. Hayne. This is a most beautiful picture and is valued at her studio in Portland, at $40.00.

FOURTH PRIZE—Full set of Chambers Encyclopedia, with the American additions, bound in sheep and consisting of eight quarto volumes, of about 800 pages each, illustrated with wood engravings and colored maps. This is the most practical and valuable encyclopedia for constant use yet published. This is a new set, procured from J. K. Gill & Co., booksellers, Portland. Value, $30.00.

FIFTH PRIZE—A copy of the new edition of Webster's International Dictionary. This is the only authorized edition of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, and has just been revised and enlarged, making it the only complete and standard work in one volume. It is indexed and bound in sheep. This work is sold by J. K. Gill & Co., Portland. Value, $10.50.

Rules governing the contest will be forwarded upon application to WEST SHORE, Portland, Oregon.
