The rose and lily, side by side,
Were in a bouquet pent;
"Ah!" the rose exclaimed, "you're fair to see;"
And the lily said, "Of course—too hee!
But you can not borrow slight from me,
For I haven't got a scent."—Pick Me Up.

LOVE'S TELEGRAPH.
"If you've a sacril for me, Ted,"
Said Judy, as she bent her head,
"Just whisper it, me hearty!"
Then, with the pose of one intent,
A dainty, pink-rimmed ear she bent
To 'rd Mr. Ted McCarty.

"Whist!" answered Ted, "it's not yer ear I'm wantin' fer me sacril, dear,
It's to yer heart O'd shake it.
An' so't may quicker go, be half,
O'll send it down be telegraph—
How'd up yer lips an' take it."

SAPOLIO is one of the best known city luxuries and each time a cake is used an hour is saved. On floors, tables and painted work it acts like a charm. For scouring pots, pans and metals it has no equal. If your store-keeper does not keep it you should insist upon his doing so, as it always gives satisfaction and its immense sale all over the United States makes it an almost necessary article to any well supplied store. Everything shines after its use, and even the children delight in using it in their attempts to help around the house.
