PUZZLEWITS.

A prize department will appear in The West Shore weekly, and the answers will be given monthly, in the issue published the third week of the month. All answers to puzzles published one month must reach this office no later than the tenth of the succeeding month in order to compete for prizes.

The following prizes will be awarded monthly:

For Puzzles—For the best puzzle of any kind, two dollars in cash. For second best, subscription to The West Shore for six months. For the third best, subscription to The West Shore for three months. Winners will be announced in the last issue of each month.

For Solutions—For the first complete set of answers received, two dollars in cash. For the second, subscription to The West Shore for six months. For the third, subscription to The West Shore for three months. Answers must reach this office by the tenth of the month following the publication of the puzzle. In case of no complete list being received the nearest complete will be awarded the prize.

Grand Prize—For the greatest number of puzzles completed and published during the year 1901, an elegant life size portrait, either etching or water color as the writer may select, executed at the photographic establishment of H. C. Town, corner of First and Morrison streets, Portland, Oregon. For the greatest number of correct answers received during the year 1901, one of Town's portraits as described above. The second prize to each of these classes will receive a subscription to The West Shore for one year; the third grandest for six months; the fourth grandest, for three months.

A REAL LUXURY!

Looking out over the many homes of this country, we see thousands of women wearing away their lives in household drudgery that might be materially lessened by the use of a few cakes of SAPOLIO. If an hour is saved each time a cake is used, if one less wrinkle gathers upon the face because the toil is lightened, she must be a foolish woman who would hesitate to make the experiment, and he a churlish husband who would grudge the few cents which it costs.

If your grocer sends you anything in place of SAPOLIO, send it back and insist upon having just what you ordered. SAPOLIO always gives satisfaction. On floors, tables, and painted work it sets like a charm. For scouring pots, pans, and metals it has no equal. Everything shines after it, and even the children delight in using it to their attempts to help around the house.

Our grocers often substitute cheaper goods for SAPOLIO to make a better profit. Send back each article and insist on having just what you ordered.
