

OUT About Town

26 SATURDAY

Judy's on 14th and NE Broadway celebrates their grand opening this evening beginning at 5 p.m. Door prizes, half price draft beer and entertainment galore. Come out and half them celebrate.

The Portland Women's Theatre Company presents Jane Chambers My Blue Heaven, a fast-moving comedy about commitments and the realities of love. Performing Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights until Dec 10th at the Pine St. Theatre, 215 SE 9th at 8 p.m. Tickets at the door, $5.00. Discount showings December 1 for $4.00. Interpreted for the hearing impaired on Dec. 3. Childcare provided on Friday night performances only. The Pine St. Theatre is wheelchair accessible.

27 SUNDAY

Bandstand Fever! AIDS fundraiser presented by El Cid II. Mark at The City, 8 p.m., showtime 8:30. $2.00 cover goes to the Cascade AIDS Project. Be there or be square.

Juliet Of the Spirits, presented by the Northwest Film Study Center is considered by critics to be a feminist 8½. Instead of examining the symbols of his own consciousness, Fellini turns to those of his wife, Giulietta Messina. Show at 8 p.m.

28 MONDAY

Ron Snyder, pianist extraordinaire, performs at Judy's, 14th and NE Broadway, at 18 p.m.

Potluck and Dance for Peace at the Pine Street Theatre, 215 SE 8th. Entertainment by PAND and "Life After Liftoff." All ages welcome. Donations at the door to go to help send a Portland delegation to the National Freeze Convention.

Michel Delacroix

29 TUESDAY

Insight Out, a performance piece directed by Steve Maker, and enacted by Wayne Paulus. At The Cell, 300 NW 10th. Doors open 8 p.m., performance at 8:30. Open to the public, $3.00 per person.

30 WEDNESDAY

Regional film and video makers are invited by the NW Film Study Center to send or bring recent work for public screening. Admission is free and there is no charge to show work. Call the film center at 221-1156 for more information. Screening begins at 8 p.m.

1 THURSDAY

Hannukkah, the celebration of lights begins.

Oscar Night at Wilde Oscar's. Open mike theatre, and cabaret. All act are welcome. $1.00 cover.

Portland Women's Theatre Company presents Jane Chambers' My Blue Heaven. See information under Saturday, 26.

2 FRIDAY

The Refuse the Cruise Coalition sponsors a non-violent direct action against Precision Castparts who is a manufacturer of parts for Cruise missiles. Be at 4600 SE Harney Dr. at 7 a.m. Picketing and leafletting at corporate headquarters of Precision Castparts, 7303 SE Lake Rd in Milwaukie (near Levitz Furniture), from 3:00 to 5:30, then a candlelight vigil. Be there and show your support for nuclear disarmament.

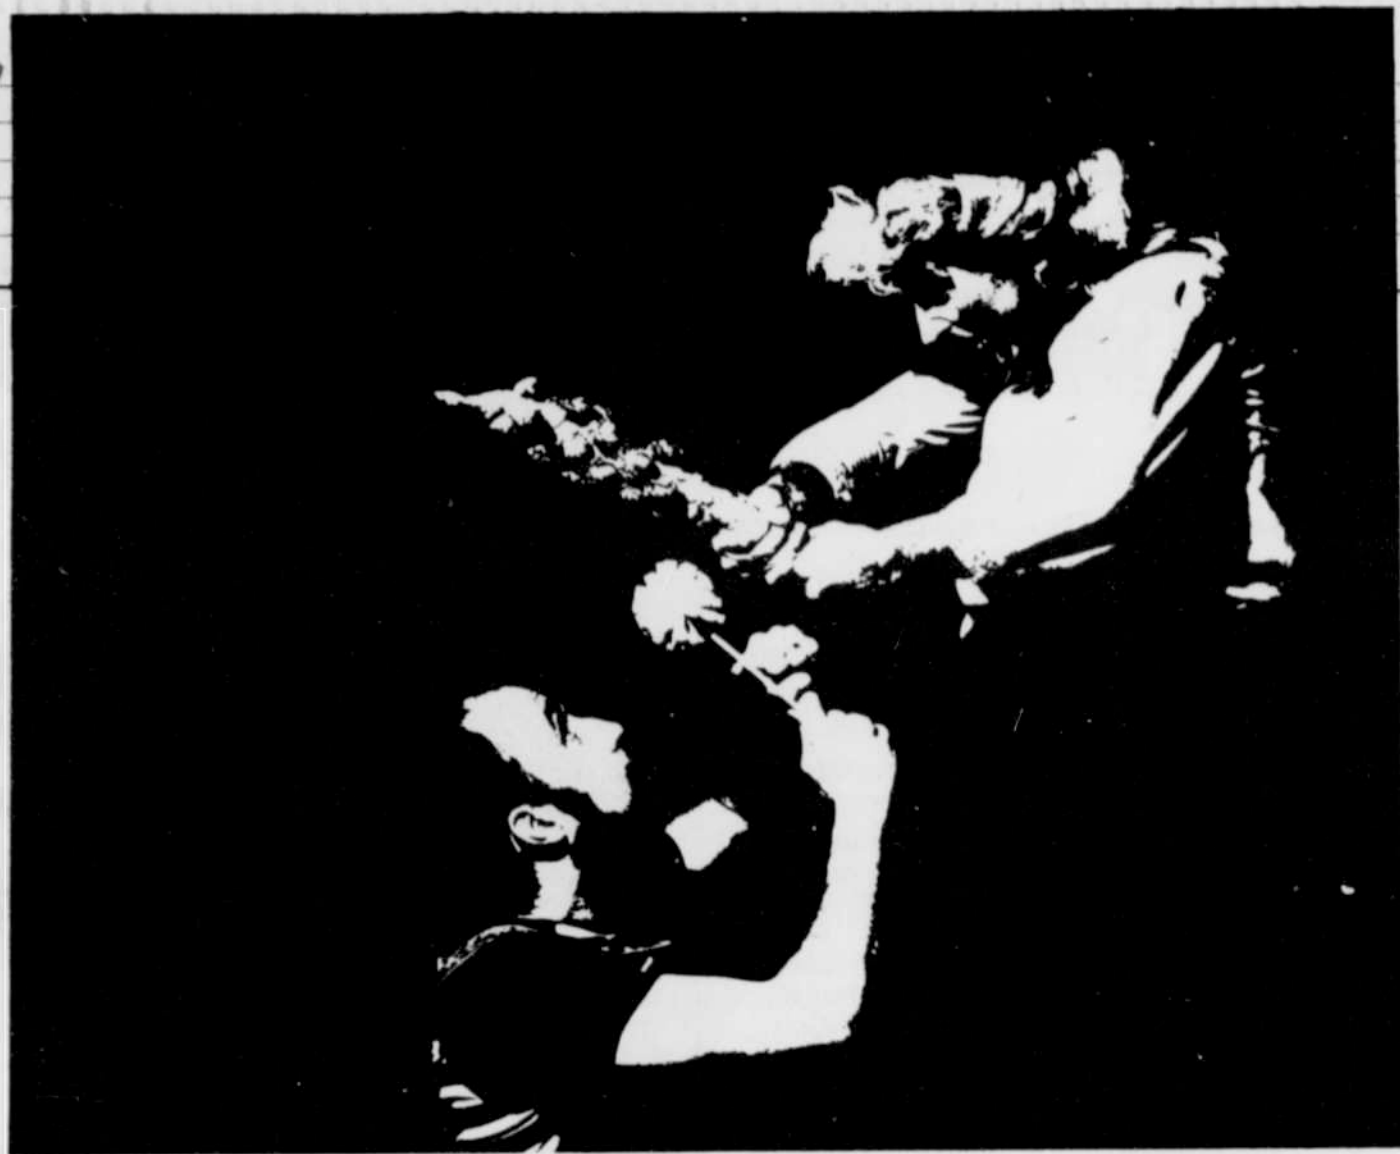

Photo by Rick Adams

Joseph Cronin as the Widow Bump and David Beetham-Gomes as her zany sidekick, Seymour Runtz, ham it up again this year in Jack and the Beanstalk, December 2-23 at Artists Repertory Theatre in the Wilson Center for the Performing Arts, YWCA, 1111 S.W. 10th, 3rd Floor. Reservations 223-6281.

Kate Sullivan, musician extraordinaire, performs at Wilde Oscar's 5-7pm. Happy hour and complimentary hors d'oeuvres. Mother Light performs pre-1935 Blues and Jazz, 9pm-1am.

Theresa Demarest performs at Judy's 14th and NE Broadway, 8:30, 10:00 and 11:30. $1.00 cover.

Wear a green armband today as part of a joint peace action between Canada and the United States. At 7 p.m. take part in a candlelight vigil by placing a lit candle in your window or on your porch. We all must work towards nuclear disarmament and world peace. Show your support.

3 SATURDAY

Spectrum Gallery is pleased to present France's premiere primitive artist, Michel Delacroix, who has just completed a new portfolio and book titled Follow me through Paris today, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Everyone is welcome. Exhibition continues through January 3, 1984.

The NW Service Center presents the Clio Awards at 2:00, 7:00 and 8:45. Each year the American Television and Radio Commercial Festival screens thousands of commercials to single out those which represent outstanding creative excellence. Tonight they present the winners of the 1982-83 competitions.

Wear a green armband today as part of a Canadian/U.S. joint peace action. We all must work towards nuclear disarmament and world peace, show your support.

4 SUNDAY

Jack in the Beanstalk plays at 7 p.m. at the Wilson Center for the Performing Arts, 1111 SW 10th. Call 223-6281 for reservations.

Park Block Revels today. Trumpets will sound at the Portland Art Museum to herald the afternoon's revelry and the performing arts. Starting at 1 p.m. and running until 5 p.m. Festivities range from theatre to sing-alongs, films to dancing.

The Portland Frontrunners meet to run at Duniway Park, 10 a.m., for a 3-5 mile jaunt. At 11 a.m. the Frontrunners sponsor a champagne potluck brunch to encourage new members to come out. Open to all members and new people interested in getting a better bod and having fun. Call 232-6004 for more information.

The NW Film Study Center presents Greed, an epic by Eric Von Stroheim, which remains one of the towering achievements of silent cinema. The plot follows a man and wife's obsession with gold. Ironically, the two hours remaining of the film is all that is left after MGM burned the film to salvage the gold stock it was printed on. Live piano accompaniment.

Jane Howard performs at Judy's, 14th and NE Broadway at 8 p.m.

Kaci Cooney presents Feminine Wiles, a musical reminiscence of the '30s and '40s at Wilde Oscar's tonight, 8:30 p.m.

Do Jump is having an auction to raise funds for the theatre and Atlantis, an original play by Melinda Pittman. Items for auction include a Beatles autograph, and many other great holiday gifts. Tickets are $2.00 and are available from the Ticket Link at the Yamhill Market Place. Echo Theatre is located at 1515 SE 37th near Hawthorne. Doors open at 5 p.m. with the auction beginning at 6 p.m.

8 THURSDAY

Leigh Clarkgranville returns to Wilde Oscar's. Comedienne of rare talent, her performance begins at 8:30 p.m. $6 cover.