

swing sounds of Bob Wills and his Texas Playboys, Jimmy Rodgers, Tex Williams and others is presented as An Evening of Western Swing at the NW Film Study Center at 7 pm.

Last showing of Peter Watkins' The War Game. Portland Cable TV presents the world television premiere of the Academy Award-winning film. 6:30 pm. Channel 35, also Jan. 22 at 10:30 pm, Channel 35.

26 THURSDAY

Theatre abounds today, Friday and Saturday. See Friday the 20th for more information.

The NW Film Study Center presents The Girl Can't Help It, a 1956 '50s rock film. Features Little Richard, Fats Domino, and a host of other groups starring Jayne Mansfield in an amusing comedy in which Mr. Big of the Juke Box Racket attempts to break his no-talent girlfriend into the music business.

At 8:45 Monterey Pop, a music documentary of the 1967 Monterey Pop Festival with Janis Joplin, Jimi Hendrix, The Who, and more. Call 221-1156 for more information.

27 FRIDAY

Theresa DeMerest does original folksy blues at Judy's, 15th and NE Broadway, 8:30 pm, 10:00 pm and 11:30 pm. $1.00 cover.

The Portland Civic Theatre presents The Royal Family, Kaufman and Ferber's comedy inspired by the theatrical dynasty of the Barrymores. Directed by Rebecca Adams with a cast including Katherine King and Jay Randall Horenstein opens tonight and plays Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays at 8 pm. Tickets $6.50 for adults, $5.50 for students and seniors. For reservations call 226-3048.

28 SATURDAY

A public discussion on The Revolutionary Women of Ireland will be held at 8:00 pm Saturday, January 28, at 2831 NE Union. Dinner will be served at 6:30 pm for a $5.00 donation.

Betty Maloney will give an eyewitness account of the Irish feminist and nationalist movements and show how women's issues are a key to the struggle for national independence.

Sponsored by Radical Women. Call 249-0708 or 249-8067.

Genevieve Productions starts the new year off right with an exciting concert event featuring Teresa Trull and Barbara Higbie performing together for one show at 8 pm at The Old Church, 1422 SW 11th Ave.

Trull and Higbie combine an electrifying fusion of rock, pop, and jazz with a dash of country. Their new album, Unexpected, describes better than words their outstanding musicianship and raucous humor. Trull's powerful vocals are complemented by Higbie's instrumental prowess, guaranteeing to keep the audience mesmerized.

Tickets are $6.50 in advance and $7.50 at the door. Ticket outlets are A Woman's Place Bookstore and Rising Sun Records in Salem.

Windfire, a rap group for lesbian, gay, and bisexual youth under 21 meets at Old Wives Tales in the banquet room at 2:30 pm.

The gala opening of Echo Theatre happens tonight at 8 pm with the Do Jump Movement Theater presenting The Miracle on 37th Avenue, a dance theater performance event. This will be the only performance ever. Live music by Barbara Bernstein and Kiera O'Hara. Echo Theatre is located at 1515 SE 37th. Tickets are available at Catbird Seat and A Woman's Place Bookstore. Wheelchair accessible.

29 SUNDAY

The fabulous Dyketones, Portland's premiere '50s rock-n-roll review will return to Darcelle XV at 8:30 pm.

Highlighting the meeting will be spotlight appearances by "Dyketone-for-a-night" raffle winners Rupert Kinnard, Maureen Carrsyn and Tina Sandoval. Watch them fulfill their fantasy as they perform one of their favorite tunes from the '50s. Darcelle XV is located at 208 NW 3rd Ave., and is wheelchair accessible.

4 SATURDAY

A Woman's Place Bookstore celebrates its 11th Anniversary with a benefit Sock-Hop with the infamous '50s rock-n-roll band The Dyketones at the Echo Theatre, 1515 SE 37th, 8 pm to midnight.

This is a real sockhop, shoes will be checked at the door. Tickets are $5.00 and are available in advance at A Woman's Place Bookstore, 2349 SE Ankeny. Echo Theatre is wheelchair accessible and childcare is available with reservation only by calling 236-3609 by January 31. Be there or be square!

Billie Holiday is in a film showing at the NW Film Study Center.