

9 THURSDAY

Some would say the difference between yogurt and Portland is that yogurt has an active culture. Not true! Theatre is alive and well with many productions to choose from. See Friday the 3rd for more details.

10 FRIDAY

Beginning at 7:30 pm the PSU Film Committee presents two films which explore the themes of black culture and history as part of a film series recognizing Black History Month. (See Friday 3 for more information.) Admission is free. Black at Yale is based on the question "What does it mean to be a black student at Yale?" The answers are thoughtful, startling and illuminating. Street Corner Stories is a tough, unsentimental and relevant look at the American black storytelling tradition and the blues sensibility that has helped to shape it.

FACE THE IMMINENT DESTRUCTION OF ATLANTIS! The story of twin daughters, one a mute, one an oracle, and a prince whose lives become entwined in a power struggle with the royal family of Atlantis. A story of love as told by The Bulldancer, (Colleen Conroy) through humor, storytelling, drama, and song.

Partially funded by the Metropolitan Arts Commission.

Tickets are available by reservation or at the door. Champagne opening is February 10, 1984 and tickets for the opening are $10.00. Performances through March 17.

Friday and Saturday admission is $6.00. Sunday show is $5.00. $1.00 discount for senior citizens and students. Theatre doors open at 7:30 pm. Curtain at 8 pm all nights. Call 231-1232 for reservations or more information.

Atlantis, a Portland original by Melinda E. Pittman premieres February 10, 1984 at The Echo Theatre, located at 1515 SE 37th & Hawthorne, 231-1232.

Theresa Demerest plays guitar and sings folksy-blues at Judy's, 15th and NE Broadway, at 8:30 pm. Theresa is an extremely talented musician. Don't miss her. Cover is $1.00.

11 SATURDAY

The Gay Hiking Group will stroll Beverly Beach today. If you desire to tag along, meet at the Ginger Jar restaurant, 9300 SW Barnes Rd at 9 am. (The Ginger Jar is near St. Vincent's Hospital.) The Gay Hiking Group is open to everyone. The group generally car pools on group outings. Rider customarily pays 3¢ per mile. For more information call Bob 236-1531.

Buffie Johnson Pasiphaea I, 1976.

Windfire a support/rap group for lesbians and gays under 21 meets at Old Wives Tales Restaurant 13th and E Burnside at 2:30 pm.

Mimi Weiss belts out jazz at Judy's, 15th and NE Broadway at 9 pm. Cover $2.00.

12 SUNDAY

The NW Film Study Center presents Say Amen, Somebody, George Nierenberg's film on gospel music focusing on Thomas Dorsey and "Mother" Willie Mae Ford Smith. Shows at 2 pm and 7 pm.

14 TUESDAY

A Valentine's Celebration — Erotica 1984: An exhibition of Erotic and Sensuous Art at Northwest Artists Workshop... Erotic art from around the United States will be shown at Northwest Artist Workshop, 522 N.W. 12th, from February 14 through March 8, 1984. Works in this juried show include drawings, paintings, and photographs as well as works in glass, clay and textiles.

The opening reception will be held on Valentines Day, Tuesday, February 14, from 5-7 pm. Erotic hors d'oeuvres, exotic drinks, sweets and floral arrangements will be provided for this event by Northwest Portland business. It promises to be an event you won't want to miss.

Women's Reading Group meets the first Tuesday evening of each month to discuss selected literature. Call Charlotte (234-2225) or Eve (288-0028) for further information.

15 WEDNESDAY

Gay Males Together (GMT) meets to discuss topics pertinent to gay men at PSU's Smith Center Room 229 at 7 pm.

For Elvis fans the NW Film Study Center presents An Evening with Elvis at 8 pm, featuring among others, He May Be Dead, But He's Elvis, John Myhre's tasteless but hilarious tribute to Elvis and music merchandisers everywhere.

16 THURSDAY

The NW Women's Photographers meets this evening at Old Wives Tales Restaurant for support, suggestions, and networking. New members are always welcome. If you enjoy photography come to the meeting at 7:30 pm.

Jane Howard performs original songs mixed with comedy at the East Ave. Tavern at 8 pm.

Come Out Come Out whoever you are!! Lesbian and Gay Pride '84 to begin to organize. Meeting this evening at MCC, 24th and NE Broadway, in the basement at 7 pm. Everyone is invited! Come out and make this year's LGP event Unity and more in 1984.

17 FRIDAY

Drawings by Tee Corinne from 1981-83 will be on exhibit at the Grants Pass Museum of Art through March 3rd. The opening celebration will be this evening from 6-9 pm.

Beginning at 7:30 pm the PSU Film Committee presents three films which explore the themes of black culture and history as part of a film series recognizing Black History month. (See Friday 3 for more information.) Admission is free. Syvilla: They Dance to Her Drum expresses the life of a rare woman, Syvilla Fort, a first generation black concert dancer who made an indelible print on succeeding generations of dance artists. Spirit Catcher: The Art of Betye Saar is a documentary on assemblage artist Betty Saar. Lorraine Hansberry: The Black Experience in the Creation of Drama is a portrayal of the life of the woman whose play Raisin in the Sun earned her the distinction of being the first black woman playwright.

Photo by Rick Adams

Jillayne Self and Jay Randall Horenstein in The Royal Family.