

OUT

About Town

8

FRIDAY

The Portland Women's Theatre Company presents Hollandia '45, a play by Sarah Dreher, opening tonight and playing Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays through June 23.

Hollandia '45 is the story of an army nurse, Kit Fortescue, stationed in New Guinea during World War II, who finds her civilian life in later years is haunted by her memories of the war. Her niece, Marian, attempts to destroy those memories, but Kit clings to them all the tighter as they become more real than the present. She fervently defends her right to spend her last years however she chooses.

Other characters in the play include Edith, Hazel, and Mary — Kit's World War II chums. Faith McDevitt plays Kit, and Sara Packer plays Marian. Judy Clover directs.

Tickets are available at A Woman's Place Bookstore, and Catbird Seat Bookstore in advance for $5.00. The place is the former Do Jump space, 3922 N. Williams.

The Open Door Theatre proudly presents Robert Chesley's Stray Dog Story, scheduled to run every Friday, Saturday and Sunday at 8:00 p.m. through July 15th at J.R.'s West, N.W. 10th and Everett.

Stray Dog Story is best described as an adult fairy tale which follows the life of a dog turned into a gay man who encounters life's struggles while searching endlessly for love on the streets of New York City. Outrageously humorous and touching!

The cast features Karen Boetcher-Tate as the fairy dog mother and Kevin Koesel as Buddy, the dog turned man. Jim Gambrell is producing and Brown McDonald directs.

Tickets are $5.00 at the door. Must be 21. For further information contact Brown McDonald at 224-1482.

Everything in the Garden, directed by Jerry Leith, plays in the Portland Civic Theatre's Blue Room through June 30. Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays at 8 p.m., with an Actor's Benefit on Sunday, June 24 at 7 p.m.

Edward Albee, great playwright of Who's Afraid of Virginia Wolfe and A Delicate Balance turns to Suburbia, U.S.A. for a highly comic but scathing examination of money.

Tickets are $6.50 for adults and $5.50 for students and seniors and early reservations are recommended.

Sirius Productions presents Miguel Pinero's Short Eyes. One of the most highly praised productions in Portland's theater history. Short Eyes is a powerful portrayal of prison life set in the dayrooms of a New York house of detention where a group of prisoners insult, entertain and fight one another in an attempt to preserve their sanity.

Playing Fridays and Saturdays through June 16, performances beginning at 8 p.m.

The Portland Gay Men's Chorus brings their Best to You June 23rd and 24th.

The Northwest premiere of Dos Lesbos, A Play By, For, And About Perverts, will open at Judy's, 1431 NE Broadway. Written by Teresa Baum and Carolyn Myers, directed by Harrison Pierce.

Dos Lesbos opened in San Francisco in 1981 and was subsequently nominated for a Cable Car Award (best theatrical production) and a Bay Area Theater Critics Award (best original dramatic script). Co-author Baum starred in the original production, which played in San Francisco for over a year. The Portland production will be the first outside the Bay Area.

See Just Entertainment for more information.

The NW Film Study Center presents as part of their Columbia Classics Film Series, Anatomy of a Murder (1959) at 7 p.m. Starring James Stewart as a small-town defense attorney pitted against George C. Scott, the big-city D.A.

The soundtrack features the jazz of Duke Ellington.

The New Rose Theatre presents The Comedian in Spite of Himself, a commissioned work by resident playwright Charles Deemer about famous 17th century French playwright, Jean-Baptiste Moliere.

The play will open this evening and play through June 16. Playing Thursday through Saturday nights at 8 p.m. Call 227-4080 for more information.

The Portland Art Museum presents Pop Art. This exhibition features prints by such artists as Rauschenberg, Warhol, Dine and others. The works are on view in the First Floor Corridor Gallery, through July 15.

The current works of Kay Buckner will be on exhibit at the Graystone Gallery, 3279 SE Hawthorne.

Buckner works in oils, her paintings give a visual statement about society. Her works have been exhibited extensively throughout the U.S.

Womansoul on KBOO 90.7 FM from 10 p.m.-1 a.m. Your favorite music by women. From Grace Jones to Meg Christian.

La Patisserie, 208 NW Couch, will exhibit the work of a lesbian printmaker and poet through June 30. Susan Blacker's work includes lithographs, woodcuts and collographs — some illustrating poetry by Rosanne King. For more information call 281-7247.

The Artists Repertory Theatre presents A Lesson From Aloes directed by Rebecca Adams.

Set in a house in a white district of Port Elizabeth in 1963, this important work gives a compelling portrait of a new society caught in the grip of a police state.

Runs Friday, Saturday, and Sunday evenings through July 8 at the Wilson Center for the Performing Arts in the Downtown YWCA. For reservations and ticket information call 223-6281.

A benefit for Sisters of the Road Cafe features Kate Sullivan, and other local entertainers at the Pine St Theatre, 215 SE 9th at 8 pm. Ticket are $5-10.00. Children under 12 free.

9 SATURDAY

The Rosetown Ramblers, Portland's gay square dance group, is hosting the second annual Rose Festival Jamboree, a weekend of square dancing and other festivities that brings square dance groups from other cities to Portland.

Tonight at the Smith Memorial Ballroom at PSU, is the real jamboree. Highlights include an exhibition by the Seattle square dance group the Puddletown Squares, and an exhibition by the NW's only all-woman square, the Women of Rosetown. There will be two step and line dancing for everyone to take part in.

Tickets are $5.00 at the door and include a buffet. The jamboree begins at 8 pm. The Smith Ballroom is at Broadway and S.W. Montgomery. For more information call Richard, 224-6315 or Bill, 281-4488.

The fabulous Dyketones perform at their big Bon Voyage Party at the Pine Street Theater. The time is 8:30 p.m. and the cover is $5.00. Their performance is interpreted for the hearing impaired, and is wheelchair accessible.

10 SUNDAY

Sandy Director presents Mr. Hunky XI at Darcelle XV at 8:30 pm. Tonight view the candidates in their various dress, and watch as judges pick this year's Mr. Hunky XI. Tickets are $5.00.

Lesbian and Gay Pride needs you! Security monitor training for the march and rally. Wider visibility requires more monitors. Meet at the Echo Theater, 1515 SE 37th, noon-5:30. Call 231-5034.

11 MONDAY

The Bisexual Exploration Group is having an open house tonight from 7-10 pm at Old Wives Tales.

13 WEDNESDAY

Lisa Koch performs comedy and music to delight you at Judy's. $1.50 cover. 8:30 pm.

Gay Males Together (GMT) meets at PSU's Lincoln Hall, Rm. 75, at 7:30 pm to discuss issues pertinent to gay men. Newcomers welcome.