The Northwest Premiere of Stephen Sondheim's musical thriller will be the second Mainstage production of the S.R.O. season. Sweeney Todd is a musical adaptation of a melodramatic folk legend that tells of a barber who returns to London after 15 years in prison to take revenge on the judge who unjustly convicted him. The book by Hugh Wheeler is based on the play of the same title by Christopher Bond. Bill Dobson directs Craig Fields in the title role and Barbara Irvin as in the industrious pie-maker, Mrs. Lovett. Thursday-Saturday, 8 p.m.; Sunday, 7 p.m. Portland Civic Theatre, 1530 SW Yamhill St. Tickets: $9.50/Adults; $8.50/Students and Seniors. Reservations: 226-3048.

Loosely based on a French farce all about love-starved young men, swooning young ladies, boisterous fathers, family honor and mistaken identity, Scapino is filled with modern day allusions to Kung Fu, Baskin Robbins, and ganster films all in the tradition of Moliere and commedia dell'arte. Glenn Gauer directs a cast of zanies including Sunny Sorrels, Thom Cosgriff, Kurt Nadeje, James Cox, Ray Tilotson, Cherie Price, Bryan Mackey, Karen aag, Rachel S. Frey, Warren Harshbarger, Michael Shine and Thomas Newsom. Written by Frank Dunlop and Jim Dale. Portland Civic Theatre is located at 1530 SW Yamhill St. Thursday-Saturday, 8 p.m.; Sunday, 7 p.m. through October 6. Tickets: $7.50/Adults; $6.50/Students and Seniors, 226-3048.
