

9 TUESDAY

Community Services Committee (CSC) meeting at 7:30 p.m. at MCC, NE 24th and Broadway. CSC is seeking to develop a central referral and information system for the gay and lesbian community. All community members are encouraged to attend.

12 FRIDAY

A multimedia concert of new works by Portland composer Elliot Rubin will be presented at Berg Swann Auditorium, 1219 SW Park Ave., at 8 p.m. See Just Entertainment for details.

13 SATURDAY

Cris Williamson, Tret Fure, Barbara Hibgie, and Teresa Trull will perform together in concert at the Lewis and Clark chapel.

The performance is part of a regional conference on Women and the Law, "Realizing Women's Impact," and is sponsored by the Women's Law Caucus at Lewis and Clark College.

Seating is extremely limited. Tickets are $13.50 in advance, and will be available at The Woman's Place Bookstore, 2349 SE Ankeny. Call 244-1181, ext. 673 for more information about the conference or the concert.

Democrats and '84 Elections. "Are Mondale and the Democrats Lesser Evils?" is the topic of a public forum at 7:30 pm at the PACT Senior Service Center, 3588 S.E. Division. The Democrats' "dump Reagan at any cost" argument in light of Mondale's actual record and platform will be addressed. Jackson's and Ferraro's efforts to sell disaffected voters on the Democrats as the party of "fairness," will be assessed and strategies for building anti-capitalist, third-party alternatives will be discussed. Door donation $2.00 (low income $1.00). Refreshments served at a reception after the program at 9:00 p.m. Sponsored by Radical Women and the Freedom Socialist Party. For information call 249-1710. Wheelchair accessible.

The NW Film Study Center and Leonard Maltin, one of the country's most respected film historians and writers, present an evening of classic and rarely seen cartoons from the Warner Brothers Studios at 8 p.m.

14 SUNDAY

Performers and Artists for Nuclear Disarmament (PAND) and the Disarmament Media Network (DMN) will present PeaceFest: a Theatre/Jazz/Arts Celebration at the Catlin Gabel School.

The day's highlights include:

At 2:00 pm: "Handy Dandy, a comedy but" by Pulitzer Prize winning playwright William Gibson. The play, which explores the issue of civil disobedience and personal responsibility, is being simultaneously premiered across the nation. The Portland production is directed by Gary O'Brien and stars Tom Laswell and Edie Baker.

From 4:00 pm-11 p.m.: "In Concert Against Nuclear Arms: Jazz/Peace." Thara Memory and the Creative Jazz Ensemble, Calvin Walker, Steve Wolf with the Mel Brown Trio, Michele Mariana and Sue Harris will all be performing, with set-change performance poetry by dan raphae.

"Images of the Nuclear Age" will present the work of several local artists. The exhibit will hang in the lobby throughout the day. A free reception for the artists begins at noon.

For more information, please call 242-1984 or 248-9275. Advance tickets are priced at $5 for the afternoon, $5 for the evening and $8 for both.

16 TUESDAY

The Lesbian Forum meets today to discuss Lesbian Prosperity. Where's the money in Portland's lesbian community?

The Forum meets at the Westminster Church at 7:30. A $2.00 donation is requested.

17 WEDNESDAY

The Father's Support Group will have a speaker who will discuss self-defense, what to do, and what not to do.

The group meets the 1st & 3rd Wednesdays to discuss issues pertinent to gay fathers and their children. For more information call David Callentine, 284-4275.

19 FRIDAY

To celebrate the first anniversary of the Echo Theater, Another Miracle will be performed, an evening of dance, theater, live, original music and surprises.

The Do Jump Dance Theater is directed and choreographed by Robin Lane with guest choreography by Laurene Reiner and Tracy Durbin. Performers include Janesa Kruse, Laurene Reiner, Niya Standish, Tracey Durbin, Zonnie Bauer, Josie Mosley, Carolyn Holzman and many more.

Last year's performance sold out, so you are encouraged to buy your tickets early. Call 231-1232 for more information. Tickets are available at A Woman's Place Bookstore and Catbird Seat.

21 SUNDAY

Jammin' at the Gender Gap, a festival of Women's Music featuring Loose Wimmin', We Three, Joyful Sound, Banshee, Jane Howard, Mother Lode, and Jazz Contribution will be at Starry Night, 8 NW 6th, from 6-11 p.m.

MC's for the event include Ruth McFarland, Margaret Strachan, Margie Hendrickson, Rebecca Webb, Barbara Roberts and Margie Boule.

Tickets are sliding scale, $5-$10. For childcare and more information call 295-2550. The Starry Night Club is wheelchair accessible.

26 FRIDAY

Changing Woman Chorus presents an All Hallow's Eve ceremony of original music and feminist readings honoring our martyred women ancestors, and inspiring us to claim our collective and individual energy and brilliance, on Friday, October 26, 8:00 p.m. at Metropolitan Community Church, 1644 N.E. 24th at Broadway. Refreshments and traditional Hallowe'en celebration will follow ceremony. Tickets are $2.00 at the door.

28 SUNDAY

The Father's Support Group is planning an event to bring dads and the kids together for a potluck Halloween Party. For more information call 284-4275.

Vana O'Brien in Sister Mary Ignatius Explains It All to You. photo by Rick Adams