THEATRE MASK ENSEMBLE, a national touring company based in Portland, Oregon, is expanding to include one or two additional performers to create a larger diverse repertoire. Actors, dancers and mimes (women and men) are requested to audition for full or part time salaried performance positions beginning in the 1985-86 season. In addition to performing the existing repertoire, new members will collectively participate in the development of innovative original movement theatre (masks, comedy, drama, traditional and experimental). The Ensemble will perform in a variety of venues including, universities, major concert halls, national and international festivals throughout the U.S., Mexico and Canada. Experience is preferred in some type of movement discipline (mime, dance and acrobatics, etc.).

For more information contact: Theatre Mask Ensemble, P.O. Box 15182, Portland, Oregon 97215, (503) 231-9581.
