About Town

1 SATURDAY

Suddenly Last Summer, directed by Gary O'Brien, plays in the Portland Civic Theatre Blue Room through June 15. Tennessee Williams has woven a drama of mounting suspense; a parable of purity and beauty destroyed by violence and corruption. Tickets for Suddenly Last Summer are $7.50 for adults and $6.50 for students and seniors over 65. Early reservations are recommended. Call 226-3048 between noon and 9:00 p.m., Monday through Saturday, for details.

The Northwest Film Study center presents as part of its Contemporary Women Directors series Old Enough, at 8 p.m. Old Enough is the story of Lonnie, an adventurous girl from an upper-class family, and Karen, a street girl from an immigrant background who simultaneously discover their sexuality and the inescapable differences in their upbringing in a changing New York neighborhood. Director Marisa Silver won the Grand Prize at the 1984 New York Film Festival for Old Enough.

The Oregon School of Arts and Crafts is holding a pottery sale today from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and on Sunday, June 2nd from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. The sale will include pottery by current O.S.A.C. members and students. A raffle of faculty and visiting artist work will be held each afternoon at 4 p.m.

Oregon School of Arts and Crafts is located at 8245 S.W. Barnes Road. For more information call 297-5544.

7 FRIDAY

Metropolitan Community Church (MCC) is sponsoring a Peace Storytelling Festival from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.

Storytellers include Edie Jean Storyweaver, Ted Gillis and Floating Eagle Feather.

The Festival hopes to generate international understanding of music and folktales.

Echo Theatre presents its Second Annual Choreographers' Showcase. Veteran choreographers and some of Portland's up-and-coming talent in the field, display their work today and tomorrow at Echo Theatre, 1515 SE 37th Ave. Performance begins at 8:00 p.m. See pieces by Pat Robinson, Wendy Hambidge, Carolyn Holzman, Tim Ryan, Jane Ensign, Tish Lilly and Ruby Burns. Tickets are $3.00. Reservations may be made by calling 231-1232.

8 SATURDAY

Lesbian & Gay Pride is "Alive with Pride in '85" and we need to call upon you, the community, to help secure our right to celebrate. With conservative backlash, as well as recent gains for our rights in the local area, now more than ever we are striving toward a safe, fun-filled week of events from Friday, June 14, 1985-Sunday, June 23, 1985.

Anyone interested in becoming a security monitor must attend the non-violent, tactical training workshop on Saturday, June 8, 1985. For further information please call 233-1169.

11 TUESDAY

The Hallelujah Chorus, a comical singing group is performing at White Eagle Cafe and Saloon, 836 N. Russell.

The show will feature Max and Many, a country western duo from downstate Delaware with those lewd, ludicrous and lovable Snuff Queens as backup group.

Cover $2.00. Showtime 8:30.

KBOO radio presents American Audio Prose Series, readings and interviews at 9:30 a.m.

John Sayles is best known as a director (Return of the Secaucus 7, and Brother from Another Planet) but today he talks about his novels and short stories, and reads from "The Anarchist's Convention."

14 FRIDAY

The editors of Lesbian Nuns: Breaking Silence, Rosemary Curb and Nancy Manahan, will be in Portland at 8 p.m. to discuss their book and answer questions.

Lesbian Nuns is an unprecedented, myth-shattering book consisting of interviews with 49 former and present nuns. Each describes the path she has journeyed to the discovery of the fact that she is a lesbian nun, and each tells the story of survival under rigid rules and vows.

Lesbian Nuns has been scrutinized by the media. Curb and Manahan have appeared on the Phil Donahue Show, on local television talk shows throughout the United States, and their book will be published in parts in Penthouse Forum.

Curb and Manahan will be speaking at PSU Lincoln Hall Room 75 at 8 p.m. Friday, June 14. A $1.00 donation is requested, and the forum will be ASL interpreted for the hearing impaired. The hall is wheelchair accessible and childcare is provided by reservation.

The event is co-sponsored by A Woman's Place Bookstore and PSU's Women's Studies Department as part of Lesbian and Gay Pride 1985.

Call 236-3609 for childcare reservations and to arrange seating for differently-abled individuals.

X-WIVES, a Portland-based women's theater production company, presents Buried Personalities: An Evening of Women's Theater, Friday and Saturday nights, through June 29 at 8 p.m. at the Echo Theater.

Buried Personalities consists of five one-act plays directed by Kathay Duff and starring Sarazan Torelle James, Carol Steinel, Tilly Christenson and Kelley Edwards.

Buried Personalities plays six nights only, June 14, 15, 21, 22, 28 and 29 at 8 p.m. at the Echo Theater, 1515 S.E. 37th Ave. The Echo Theater is wheelchair accessible. Tickets are $5.00 at the door. Reservations are recommended and are available by calling 231-9105.

16 SUNDAY

Diane Green, West Coast Regional Director of New El Salvador Today, will be speaking at a Coffee and Dessert reception tonight at 7:30 p.m. at the First Congregational Church, 1126 S.W. Park in Portland. Ms. Green accompanied Berkeley city mayor Gus Newport on a fact-finding tour to El Salvador in March of this year. Their visit included traveling in regions controlled by the rebel forces fighting against the U.S.-backed government of El Salvador.

Contributions and the $3.00 admission will benefit development projects sponsored by N.E.S.T. in El Salvador.

Portland Radical Women sponsors a forum entitled Defeating Anti-Gay Bigotry: The Politics of Resistance, on Sunday, June 16, 2:00 p.m. at The Primary Domain, 1033 N.W. 16th, Portland. Strategies for fighting recent attacks on the Multnomah County gay rights ordinance, and on similar legislation in Houston, will be discussed. All are welcome. Door donation $2.00, low-income $1.00. A delicious brunch served before the program at 1:00 p.m. For information, call: 249-8067, or 249-1710.

18 TUESDAY

Tillie Olson reads her story I Stand Here Ironing and discusses how "Black" literature and "Women's" literature are ghettoized on KBOO Radio, 90.7 FM at 9:30 a.m.

Portland Democratic Socialists of America (DSA) holds its bimonthly meeting, with a panel on the Women's Health Movement. The meeting will be held at the PACT Senior Center, 3588 SE Division, at 7:30. Call 282-1300 for more information.
