THURSDAY

The Portland Premier of Translations by Irish playwright, Brian Friel, plays in the Blue Room, through August 10, Tuesday-Saturday at 8 p.m. and Sunday at 7 p.m., as part of S.R.O. (Summer Repertory Onstage) and guest directed by John Zagone.

This eloquent comedy-drama, which was highly successful at the Oregon Shakespeare Festival in Ashland, is distinguished by some of Portland's finest actors, Keith Scales, Joseph Cronin, William Tate and Nyla McCarthy and supported by Earl A. Taylor, Michael Welsh, Adair Chappel, Cathryn Cushing, Jay Randall Horenstein and Cardiff Fosand.

For information on reservations and season tickets, call the Box Office, noon-9 p.m., Monday through Saturday. Early reservations are encouraged, so call early for the first date of your choice. Box Office, 226-3048.

Mother Road Projects presents its third major production, Mr. Daniel Weber's play, The Amusement Park. M.R.P. is happy to report that the play, the kicker for the company's first full season, was awarded first place in the Seattle Empty Space Theatre's Annual Playwright's Festival Competition; and M.R.P. is pleased to present this world premiere at the Cubiculo Theatre on Friday, July 26th, 1985. The show will be performed Thursdays through Sundays, through August 18. The tickets for these shows are $5.00. All shows will start at 8:00 PM. Featured in this production are Kevin Haggerty, Steve Remington, Bin French, and Rony Wiesel. The project is directed by the playwright, Mr. Wiesel, and Cory McKelvey. For information or reservations, call 223-9872. The Cubiculo Theatre is located at 938 N.W. Everett.

This project has been funded in part by the Metropolitan Arts Commission.

Storefront Theatre announces its premiere production in the new theatre, Storefront Northwest: Filthy Rich, by George Walker.

Filthy Rich is guaranteed to provide thrills, chills and spills! In the tradition of Sam Spade, Philip Marlowe and Woody Allen, we now have Peter Fornara as Tyrone M. Power, Private Eye (?), Novelist (?), or was his mother just a romantic?

Filthy Rich has everything you always wanted in a mystery: the detective, the sidekick, the beautiful women, the cop, the gangster and the goldfish.

Filthy Rich stars: Peter Fornara, Daniel Perkin, Galen Schrick, Shauna Le Savage, Nan Kelley and Clifford Uel Smith. Directed by Susan Sweeney.

Filthy Rich opens Friday, July 26th at Storefront Northwest, 2235 N.W. Savier Street. It plays Thursday, Friday, and Saturday evenings at 8 p.m. until August 31st. Ticket prices are $7 on Thursday and $8 on Friday and Saturday. Discounts offered for students and senior citizens. Call Storefront's office (224-4001) for reservations.

SATURDAY

What role do women play in the current technological development? How can women gain the skills to tackle the complex and rapidly changing workplace? These are the questions that will be addressed at the Women and Technology Conference to be held Saturday, August 3, from 8:00 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. at the University of Portland, Portland, Oregon. This conference is co-sponsored by the YWCA in Portland and is spear-headed by a group of women involved in technological fields.

The conference will focus on workplace technology such as electronics, information processing, and telecommunications. The aim of the workshops is to help women participate more fully in technological change in our society.

The one day conference includes speakers and workshops covering the following areas: Identifying technological anxiety, managing technological anxiety, starting your own business, demystifying technological terminology, Effects of technology on employment, Automating the office, and Automating the production line.

The cost is $40.00. Information on child-care, housing, and scholarships is available. Registration deadline is July 20th. For more information, contact: Women and Technology Conference, P.O. Box 40244, Portland, OR 97240; 222-2606.

A health check-up for women in the Portland/Vancouver area will be given from 9 a.m. to 12 noon, Saturday, August 3 at Western States Chiropractic College's Main Clinic, 948 N.E. 102nd Avenue in Portland.

The $5 examination fee will cover the cost of a breast exam, pap smear, spinal check-up and urinary lab test. Appointments are necessary and may be made by calling 255-6771.
