

37th (across from the Bagdad Theater). Tickets are $3.50 at the door, $1 for children under 12 and seniors.

Sweet Honey in The Rock, five black women from Washington, DC, known as international cultural activists, Sweet Honey in The Rock is wrapped in the fabric of and nurtured by their Afro-American heritage. They write and sing songs about nuclear disarmament, South Africa, all of the Americas, babies, and grandmothers, life and love. Singin' fierce, singin' gentle, singin' strong. Experience Sweet Honey in The Rock in concert at Starry Night at 8:30 p.m. Tickets are available in advance at A Woman's Place Bookstore, Catbird Seat, Stevens & Sons, Artichoke Music and GI Joe's. $10 in advance, $12 at the door.

Starry Night is wheelchair accessible and the concert is interpreted for the hearing impaired.

September 14th has been slated for a fund raiser to benefit Cascade Aids Project, a Portland based non-profit organization dedicated to supplying the community at large with information and education on the current AIDS crisis. This is to coincide with the Northwest District Association's annual parade, fair, and sidewalk sale.

Festivities will take place in the parking lot at N.W. 23rd and Savier, from 1:00-9:00 P.M. Admission is set at $3.00 per person (with in/out privileges), and a can of food (optional) for the hungry. Beer, wine and food will be available at the Cafe Oasis (next door).

Confirmed local entertainment includes, Welfare Ranch, Ed and the Boats, The Grip, Robert Rude and the Attitude, Film at Eleven, and still in negotiation are NuShooz, Crazy Eights, Holy Modal Rounders, Kate Sullivan, and The Dyketones.

Volunteers are needed for a variety of duties from pre-show flier placement to clean up afterwards. Contact Fred Menard at the Cascade Aids Office, 223-8299, Tuesday and Thursday mornings, or leave a message.

2nd Annual Fair Northwest in Northwest Portland between 18th and 24th, Burnside & Thurman. Begins with parade along NW 21st and NW 23rd at 11:30 a.m. Free stage entertainment throughout the day.

Area merchants will feature special sidewalk displays, sale prices and fashion shows. Food and craft booths from throughout the northwest.

Free balloons.
Good Samaritan Hospital's "Sam Fair" brings their facilities outside to their campus for public display and demonstration.

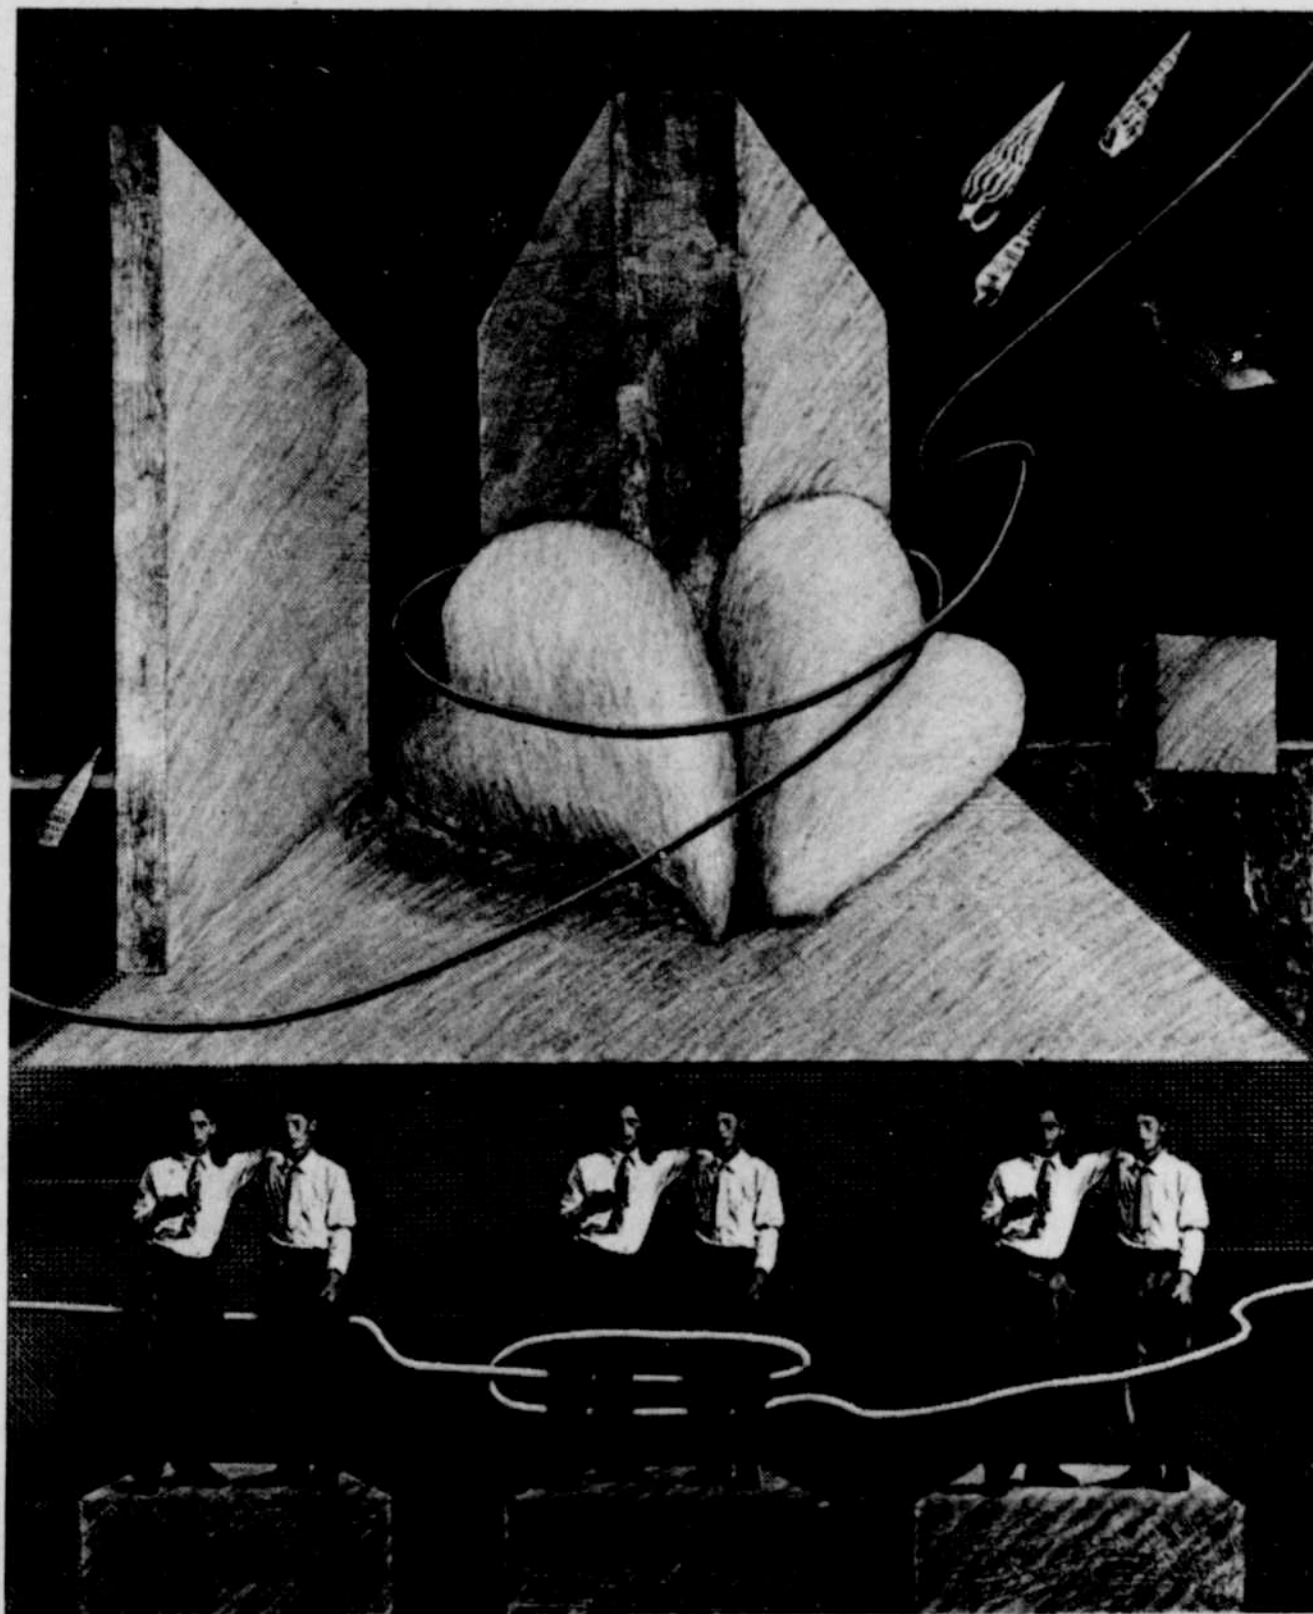

15 SUNDAY

Redwood Records and The Great

American Music Hall have announced plans to host a musical extravaganza that will celebrate Redwood's 13 years as an independent record label and herald new period of visibility and growth for the Bay Area company.

Redwood '85 will be a 7-hour concert extravaganza on September 15th at Berkeley's Greek Theatre. The show will Hancock. Domestic Bliss portrays the trials, tribulations and joys of mothering, as well as nurturance between women. The Forum is interpreted for the hearing impaired, provides supervised childcare, and is wheelchair accessible. For TTY relay, contact NW ANSIR at 233-2677 and ask for Willow at 236-4386 or Peggy at 233-0261. $2.00 donation suggested.

PDXS presents the art of August Encalada, September 19-October 12.

include familiar Redwood performers as well as a sparkling sample of new artists featured on the expanding label — Holly Near, Arlo Guthrie Sweet Honey in the Rock, Ronnie Gilbert, Ferron and the Shadows on a Dime Band, Inti Illimani, Linda Tillery and Band, and Judy Small.

Founded in 1972 by singer/songwriter Holly Near, Redwood Records has long enjoyed respect for combining professionalism with a commitment to cultural vision.

17 TUESDAY

The Lesbian Forum presents Domestic Bliss plus short films at 7:30 p.m. at Westminster Presbyterian Church, 1624 NE

18 WEDNESDAY

Book signing party at the Catbird Seat Bookstore (918 SW Broadway), 7-9 p.m., to celebrate the publication of Judith Barrington's Trying to be an Honest Woman, published this month by The Eighth Mountain Press. Refreshments provided.

19 THURSDAY

PDXS presents a ten year retrospective of the work of Portland artist, August Encalada, through October 12, 1985. The show is entitled The Works (A Retrospective).

21 SATURDAY

Slavic Voices, a six-woman cappella ensemble, will perform folk songs of Eastern Europe at 8 p.m. at the Fulton Park Community Center in Burlingame at 68 SW Miles. Admission is $3 adults, $2 students and seniors. Refreshments will be available for sale.

The group brings to you the lives and traditions of the people of Eastern Europe through folk songs from all regions of Yugoslavia (Croatia, Dalmatia, Serbia, Macedonia), Bulgaria and Russia. The singing is in the native languages, and English translations enhance the program. The group sings unaccompanied by musical instruments, highlighting only the blend of the voices.

Although much of the group's repertoire comes from recordings and workshops, some is collected in the Woodburn area from the Russian-speaking Old Believers who live there. Some of those songs will be performed in Saturday's program.

A celebrity fundraising event for the International Firehouse Cultural Center (IFCC) at the Hilton Hotel with appearances by Mayor Bud Clark, Neil Goldschmidt, Darcelle XV and Jonathan Nicholas. Call 243-7930 for more information.

23 MONDAY

Hanford First Strike and Global Proliferation — A slide show and presentation on Washington's Hanford Nuclear Reservation and its military programs at 7 p.m., at 4312 SE Stark St.

26 THURSDAY

Radical Women Meeting. Is reforming capitalism an effective method to create a just society, or is it necessary to completely replace capitalism with socialism? An analysis of Rosa Luxemburg's Reform or Revolution will address this question on Thursday, September 26, 6:30 p.m. at the Multnomah County Central Library, 801 S.W. 10th Avenue. Everyone is welcome. For more information call 249-8067. Wheelchair accessible.

29 SUNDAY

A benefit Variety Showcase for the Portland Gay Games Team II is at Roxy Heart's Leopard Lounge. Tickets are $5.00 in advance, and $6.00 at the door.