Cascade Aids Network (CAN) is a joint fund raising committee of community-based AIDS service organizations in the Portland area, including:

- The Cascade AIDS Project (CAP), which provides programs aimed at education, prevention, and risk reduction;
- Community Health and Essential Support Services (CHESS), which provides emotional and practical support through its Personal Active Listener (PAL) Project, as well as professional case management, referrals, support groups and housing assistance; and
- The Brinker Fund, which provides direct emergency financial assistance to persons with AIDS.
