15 THURSDAY

The IFCC is proud to announce that through the generous support of Pacific Northwest Bell, a new/old producing organization will become a resident company at the IFCC. The Northwest Theatre of the Deaf, which presented some dozen or so plays in the Pacific Northwest between 1973 and 1980, will stage Dame Agatha Christie's popular thriller, The Mousetrap, at the IFCC.

The Northwest Theatre of the Deaf utilizes deaf actors performing in sign language onstage, whose lines are "voiced" by off-stage hearing actors. The result is a performance of unique power and beauty that is entirely accessible to both deaf and hearing audiences.

The Mousetrap will play through May 24, Thursday through Saturday at 8 p.m. and Sunday at 2 p.m. For ticket information, please call the IFCC at 243-7930 (Voice or TTY). The IFCC is located at 5340 N. Interstate Avenue, Portland.
