

23 WEDNESDAY

Join Radical Women for a review of Burger's Daughter, the internationally awarded novel by South African author Nadine Gordimer. Gordimer dissects South African society as an insider and a rebel, through her main character, Rosa, a white South African whose life is compelled by the principles of her radical parents to fight against apartheid. Meeting at 6:30 p.m. at the Multnomah County Central Library, 801 S.W. 10th Avenue. Everyone is welcome. For more information call 249-8067. Wheelchair accessible.

PUBLIC INTEREST

United Methodists who are concerned about the full inclusion of lesbians and gay men in the church have now organized to create a support network and fellowship group.

"Affirmation: United Methodists for Lesbian and Gay Concerns" includes family and friends of gay and lesbian persons, others who support the struggle for justice, as well as gay men and lesbians. Locally, this new group has been meeting monthly in Portland-area homes for potluck dinners and fellowship.

Nationally, Affirmation has been

Pauline Whitesinger, Navajo elder from Big Mountain contemplating the July 7th relocation of the Navajo and Hopi Indians living in the Big Mountain area of Northeastern Arizona. The United States government is forcing the relocation to mine the land the native Americans now live on.

July 6-9 Cinema 21 is showing the Academy Award winning feature-length documentary Broken Rainbow about the relocation.

organized for more than 10 years, serving as a political force for change inside the church, as well as a support of gay men and lesbians.

Interested persons may write to Affirmation, P.O. Box 12673, Portland, OR 97212; or call (503) 790-0698.

Windfire is a gay, lesbian and bisexual youth group. It is one of the most exciting things in Portland if you're 20 years old or younger. Growing up gay in a heterosexual environment is very difficult. Windfire provides peer support in a non-judgmental atmosphere. Besides peer support, if you're looking for fun, Windfire is most definitely for you. Windfire sponsors picnics, parties, pot lucks, special events and weekend camping trips.

Meetings are held on Thursday evenings at the Multnomah County Library, meeting room E, 801 SW 10th, from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. The second weekly meeting is on Saturday at Old Wives Tales restaurant, 1300 E. Burnside, from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m.

If you need more information, call 233-1169.
