Lesbian Partnering Discussion

- What brings lesbians together as lovers?
- What helps lesbian relationships stay together?
- What breaks up lesbian relationships?
- What makes lesbians stay out of relationships?

All lesbians — singles and couples — are invited to an open-ended discussion of these and other questions. 7 p.m. to 9:30. Call Sara at 232-8237.

23 TUESDAY

"I attended my first Tuesday Night Group three years ago. I was just coming out and looking for a safe place to meet other gay people. Some of the men and women I hold closest to me today I met while participating in that group, now called Tuesday Night Live." That's what one group member says about his experience in Phoenix Rising's group program for Lesbians and Gay Men.

"Tuesday Night Live" resumes again for fall tonight. Offering an opportunity to gather in an alcohol and drug-free environment, "Tuesday Night" is a great outlet for social interaction and personal growth. Not only that, it's a lot of fun. The program is divided into two sections each evening, featuring a growth group and then an activity group.

"Tuesday Night Live" meets from 6:30-10:00 p.m. for eight weeks beginning September 23. A sliding fee scale ranging from $40-$120 is available. For more information, call Phoenix Rising at 223-8299.

25 THURSDAY

The second forum sponsored by the Portland Chapter of the National Organization for Women will be "The Threat to Abortion Rights."

The film Silent Scream will be shown with discussion afterward. There will be two speakers; one, from Oregon Taxpayers for Choice, will discuss the upcoming ballot referendum, and the second, NOW spokesperson Peggy Conrad, will speak on NOW's current activities to ensure reproductive rights. 7 p.m. at the NW Service Center, 1819 NW Everett.

Sue Fink at the Primary Domain, September 28th.

The Right to Privacy PAC invites the entire gay/lesbian community to meet Norma Paulus at the $15.00 per person reception at the Sivers Center of American Plaza Condominiums at 2310 SW First Avenue from 5:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. Tickets are available from the PAC and at the door.

26 FRIDAY

A fresh look at Modern Dance for Portland, Wendy Hambidge presents an evening of dance revolving around the myriad roles of women in society, from sisters to priestesses to celebrations. Hambidge is noted for her compelling stage presence and clarity and will perform a new solo depicting an old woman who embodies all women, young and old, ancient and modern. The concert will take place at The Echo Theatre at 1515 SE 37th, September 26, 27, 28, and October 3, and 4 at 8:00 p.m. Tickets are $6.00 at the door, $3.00 for children and seniors, children under five are free. For more information and reservations, call 231-1232.

There will be a Hanford Awareness Day, featuring slides, music and information, as well as ways to get involved in shutting down nuclear power and preventing the selection of a national nuclear dump at Hanford, from 11:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m., at Laughing Horse Books, 1322 NW 23rd. Admission is free.

27 SATURDAY
