

All classes start at 7:30 p.m. Registration is $20.00 ahead of time, $25.00 when classes start, sliding scale for unemployed. Courses run up to eight weeks. For more information, call 230-0488.

16 THURSDAY

Swing into fall. Dance the Bop and the Jitterbug. Line up for the Bunny Hop and the Stroll. See how low you can go with the Limbo.

The Lesbian Aging Project and the Lesbian Community Project are co-sponsoring an evening of music, dance, and nostalgia from the '40s and '50s. A warm welcome is especially extended to women who experienced that era the first time around. Women from the '60s are invited to come and find out what it was all about. Period dress is encouraged. Don't forget to bring your lucky rabbit's foot for the drawing! At the Primary Domain, 7:30 p.m. $5.00 donation.

A guest speaker from the Big Mountain Support Group will discuss the resistance that forced the U.S. Government to delay their planned July eviction of 11,000 Dine people, who live atop highly coveted mineral-rich Arizona tribal lands. Discuss the present stand-off and strategies to permanently halt the forced relocation and genocide of the Dine (Navajo) Nation. Radical Women meeting at 6:30 p.m., Multnomah County Central Library, 802 SW 10th Ave. All are welcome. For more information call 249-8067. Wheelchair accessible.

17 FRIDAY

Ladies Against Women bring their consciousness-lowering review to Portland. Ladies Against Women is an award-winning comedy show written and performed by San Francisco's Plutonium Players, will appear in Portland for a one-night-only benefit tonight at the Northwest Service Center. The lobby of the Service Center will be open at 7:15 for a pre-show bake sale and tea. Showtime is 8 p.m. Tickets are $10 for the show, or $20 for the show and a special reception with the cast in the Community Room from 6:30 to 7:00 p.m. All proceeds will be used to benefit the Oregon Taxpayers for Choice campaign to defeat ballot measure 6, which would prohibit the use of state funds for abortion. For ticket ordering information, call 777-8065.

18 SATURDAY

Alix Dobkin plays at MCC at 8:30 p.m. Sliding scale: $8, 10 and 12 at the door. MCC at 24th & NE Broadway is wheelchair accessible. Call 656-8032 for more information.

19 SUNDAY

Cowkids Country Music at the Primary Domain, 1033 NW 19th.

21 TUESDAY

Partners of Lesbian Mothers, Lesbian Forum. Westminster Presbyterian Church, 1624 NE Hancock, 7:30 p.m. Free supervised childcare, interpreted for the deaf, wheelchair access (16th street entrance attended 7:00-7:25). $2.00 suggested donation (more or less is O.K.) 236-4386.

22 WEDNESDAY

Author and humanist Ursula LeGuin will be giving a talk, A Woman Writing

Woman, Jaguar Woman, Star Woman and Flight of the Seventh Moon, will present the topic, Women's Spirituality. Admission is $15.

26 SUNDAY

The L.A.B.I.A. potluck is today from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. All lesbians interested in lesbian mothering issues are welcome to attend. Call Mimi at 234-2054 for more information.

The Oregon Art Institute and its Northwest Film & Video Center, the Jewish Federation of Portland, the Mittleman Jewish Community Center.

Members of Plutonium Players portray Ladies Against Women (LAW) with their spiritual advisor, Jerry Fallout. LAW will be in Portland Friday, October 17.

today at 12:00 noon in Lincoln Hall Auditorium Room 175. Following her talk, there will be a time for questions and answers along with an informal reception. The event is free and open to the public.

For more information, please contact PSU Women's Studies at 229-3516 or PSU Women's Union at 229-4452, ext. 13, sponsors of the event.

Susan Arrow & The Quivers at the Primary Domain, $3 cover, to benefit the WEB newspaper. Show starts at 8 p.m.

25 SATURDAY

Kate Clinton, "fumerist" (feminst humorist) does two shows tonight at 8 p.m. & 10:30 p.m. Master of irreverent humor, Clinton keeps an audience rolling with laughter.

The Hollis Taylor Band opens the show at the Pine Street Theater. Tickets $10 available at A Woman's Place Bookstore, Music Millenium, and GI Joe's.

Lynn Andrews will speak from 2 p.m. to 4:30 p.m., NW Service Center, 1819 NW Everett. Andrews, the author of Medicine and the Oregon Holocaust Resource Center have joined together to present Shoah (which means "annihilation" in Hebrew), a film unlike any other event made about the Holocaust. Shoah will make its Oregon premiere in the Art Institute auditorium with showings October 27 through November 9. the theater is located at 1219 SW Park Avenue between Jefferson and Madison Streets in Portland.

30 THURSDAY

The fifth annual Woman's Eye View Film Festival opens tonight with three Portland premieres. Women of Summer tells the story of a controversial and inspired educational experiment known as the Bryn Mawr Summer School for women workers. From 1921 to 1938, 1700 blue collar women participated in the program. When alumni gather for their 50-year reunion, Holly Near & Roni Gilbert are on hand to celebrate. The Flapper Story offers a lively examination of the social phenomenon of the "flapper," the provocative "New Woman" ideal of America's Roaring Twenties. And from the makers of

Before Stonewall comes The International Sweethearts of Rhythm: America's Hottest All-Girl Band. (See review elsewhere in this issue.)*

Tonight's screenings are the first of eight programs running Tuesday and Thursday evenings through Nov. 25. Shows start at 7 p.m. Discount series tickets will be sold at A Woman's Place Bookstore, Artichoke Music, and The Catbird Seat Bookstore. All programs will be at the Irvington Theater, 1333 NE Broadway. For a complete festival schedule, write Filma, P.O. Box 5143, Portland, OR 97215.

Thami Sindelo, African National Congress of South Africa international representative, based in Lusaka, Zambia, speaks on South Africa's situation and the U.S. Anti-Apartheid Movement, 7:30 p.m., Mt. Olivet Baptist Church, 116 NE Schuyler.

31 FRIDAY

Dust off your favorite costume or create your fantasy character for the Halloween costume dance beginning at 8 p.m. at Echo Theatre, 1515 SE 37th, sponsored by the Lesbian/Gay Pride Committee. Tickets are $5 and will be available in advance.

Dance to DJ music, win a prize, and play games for fun and prizes at this community dance to support and raise funds for this upcoming year's celebration. Also, if you're interested in decorating, soliciting donations for prizes, mailing flyer invitations, or helping to develop games and fun for the evening, come join the party by attending a planning meeting Wednesday, October 8 at 7 p.m. at the downtown Multnomah County Library.

Halloween party at the Primary Domain, with prizes for sexiest and most original costumes. $2 cover includes one free draft or soft drink with costume.

1 NOVEMBER

KBOO 90.7 FM, Portland's only independent, listener-supported community radio station will hold its Fifth Annual Boo Ball, at Union train Station. The Ball has become Portland's premier Halloween Masquerade Party and this year will be no exception. The Boo Ball begins at 8 p.m. and ends at 2:00 a.m., the featured band will be Cool'R. Opening for Cool'R will be Roaddah X and the X-Centrics. Prizes will be awarded for the best costumes. Each year over 1300 costumed revelers join in at the festivities of The Boo Ball. Tickets are limited so purchase yours early. Tickets are $10.00 for KBOO members, $11.00 for the general public and can be purchased at KBOO (20 SE 18th), Music Millenium and Downtown Budget Tapes and Records. If there are tickets left the price will be $13.00 at the door. For more information please call 213-3032.