

Highlights and Lowlifes

LAGUNA BITCH AND TIPPI

Wish I'd said that!

"La Cage aux Folles is not a gay show." Peter Marshall, star of the national touring company, in the Oregonian. (And Kurt Waldheim is not a Nazi.)

"And the gays said, 'You know, we gays, we are men become women because of our reach for beauty!'" Imelda Marcos claimed that her husband, Ferdinand, had the gay vote wrapped up in the February Filipino elections, because gays were afraid they would all lose their jobs under "a less flamboyant administration." (Ohh, Mary!)

"We used to call him 'Fairy Mason'." Pat Bond, referring to Raymond Burr, on Queersville.

"He's a disaster." Commissioner Dick Bogle, referring to Bob Koch, who defeated incumbent Margaret Strachan for Portland City Commission, on KGW-TV. (Maybe if we leave the keys in him...)

"I'm not one who thinks homosexuals have rights." The late State Senator L.B. Day. (Thank you, God.)

That dumb bitch should have realized she was only adding to my power." Police Union President Stan Peters on the fall of former Chief Penny Harrington. (Put your gun where your mouth is, Stan.)

"AIDS is a disease of choice." State Health Division Administrator Kristine Gebbie, on KEX Radio, as reported by City Week. (See you in the unemployment line.)

"Come out of the closet and debate." Republican candidate Linda Chavez taunting Democrat Barbara Mikulski in the Maryland Senate race. Characterizing Mikulski as "a San Francisco style liberal," Chavez all but called her opponent a lesbian. Mikulski won handily.

"Mildred Schwab could only have an orgasm when it was budget time in the City of Portland." Mayor Bud Clark to Tom Brokaw about his frequent foe on City Commission. (At least she enjoys her job.)

"I'll take a drug test as soon as my opponent takes an IQ test." South Carolina Senator Ernest Hollings when challenged to a drug test.

Heros or Zeroes in the White House

"I have bitter bile in my throat." Ronald Reagan, in Time magazine. (The White House is the new Gong Show.)

"The women of America aren't prepared to give up their jewelry." White House chief of staff Don Regan, justifying the Reagan Administration policy in South Africa. (And the boys aren't prepared to give up their uranium ore.)

"Get off my god-damned back." Ronnie to Nancy, who was advising him to fire Don Regan. (Just say no, Ronnie.)

"President Reagan may have approved the first shipment of US arms to Iran while he was ill or under sedation." Attributed to Attorney General Edwin Meese. (Challenge this man to a drug test.)

"The only way that the Republican Party can hold the White House in 1988 is to nominate a candidate who can win." Alexander Haig, announcing his [Republican] candidacy for president. (Challenge this man to an IQ test.)
