Phoenix Rising, Oregon's lesbian/gay service center presents groups, workshops and an adventure program. April events include:

Bicycle Tour: Join in an easy bike ride to Blue Lake Park and the Sandy River. Meet at the Tri-Met Park and Ride on Sandy at approximately 104th near the Flamingo Hotel at 10:00 a.m., returning around 3:00 p.m. on Sunday, April 26. Bring a lunch. This bike ride will explore new bike paths along Marine Drive. Fee: $1 payable at the start of the ride. No advance registration required.

Iridology: It's All in the Eyes. The physical, emotional, psychological and spiritual health is visible in the iris of the eye. Participants will learn to read eyes. Facilitated by Faye Pietrokowsky. Tuition $35.00. Saturday, April 25, 10:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m. Limited scholarship available.

Lesbian Therapy Group, an 8-week series for to work on relationships, depression, coming out, self-esteem, being single and any other personal issues. Date to be set when group fills. Target date April. Led by Phoenix Rising professional staff. Sliding scale $10-43 per session.

Gay Men's Support Group: Ongoing groups for gay men, a place to get and give support on personal issues and areas of concern to the group. Facilitated by Chuck Nance, M.A., on Thursday evenings, $25. per month.

Orientation Group for Survivors of Childhood Sexual Abuse: For Lesbians molested as children or adolescents. Information giving and sharing of experience. The focus of the group is on gaining skills to cope with feelings about the abuse, and how it affects our present lives. Led by Barbara Ford, M.S.W. Ten weeks, beginning April 8. Sliding scale, $10-43 per week.

Therapy Groups for Lesbian Survivors of Childhood Sexual Abuse: Two ongoing therapy groups, one led by Kao Rhiannon, Ph.D., on Monday nights, and one led by Terri Tardiff, M.A., on Thursday nights. Sliding scale $10-43 per session.

Adult Children of Alcoholics, a group for women. Are you never quite good enough? Do you sometimes not know what you feel? Do you guess at what is "normal"? Join this twelve-week therapy group for women, led by Trish Haas, A.C.S.W., beginning April 1. Sliding scale, $10-43 per session.

Orientation Group for Adult Children of Alcoholics: Our current orientation group has proven to be so popular that we would like to plan another one in the future. The dates are not yet established, but if you're interested, call and we'll give you more information! 223-8299.

Try a bi-cultural bed.

Futon (foo'-tawn) mattresses have been a hit in Japan for more than 2000 years.

We make futon for American bodies right here in the Northwest and they're thicker, more comfortable, and longer wearing than any other futon on the market.

So come in for a test rest on an original Northwest Futon futon and get the best of both worlds!
