1200 from all walks of life raise $90,000

Proceeds from 10 km walk shared by CAP and five other agencies offering AIDS-related services.

More than 1200 people — men, women and children — walked in the four quadrants of Portland on Sunday, August 9th, to raise $90,000 for the Cascade AIDS Project's human support services for persons with AIDS and ARC, AIDS prevention programs, and the Oregon AIDS Hotline. CAP will receive 75% of the net proceeds with the remaining 25% distributed evenly between Outside In, Phoenix Rising Foundation, Oregon AIDS Task Force, Oregon Hospice Association, and CODA (Comprehensive Options for Drug Addiction).

Representatives of corporations, small businesses, neighborhood associations and sports organizations made up 155 teams and joined dozens of families and hundreds of individual walkers from all walks of life in an enthusiastic 10 kilometer trek around Portland's inner city.

"From All Walks of Life was truly a community-wide event — and I don't mean just the gay community," said Steve Talbot, walk coordinator. "It was a wonderful day. The volunteers were outstanding. We have had dozens of calls of appreciation."

Talbot says that checks are still being received and that not all pledges have been mailed in yet. People are urged to return their pledges as soon as possible. And anyone wishing to make a donation at any time may send their checks to From All Walks of Life, PO Box 14765, Portland, OR 97214.

Commemorative T-shirts in four colors are still available for $6 at 408 SW 2nd, Suite 412. •

Sashie needs help!

Sashie Hyatt is suffering from a severe form of cancer which necessitates treatment at the Sloan-Kittering Memorial Hospital in New York City.

Throughout her years of involvement in the Portland lesbian and gay community, Sashie has been a key member of Lesbian Community Project, Lesbian Aging Project, Defenders of Mithra, Portland Women's Theater Company and Portland Power and Trust. As Oregon State Leatherwoman III, Sashie and her lover Judy Tallwing McCarthy (International Ms. Leather), have been involved in AIDS benefits across the country as well as working to draw the men's and women's communities closer together.

Currently a number of projects are underway to raise funds for treatment, travel and living expenses; individual money raising by members of the Lesbian Community Project, the National Leather Association activities at the Living in Leather Conference II, and a fundraiser on September 20th at the Club 927. The Seattle/Portland Lesbian Erotica Review will be returning. Joining them, for a community first, will be a men's erotic review.

For the years of support and giving of herself, Sashie Hyatt has provided us, we need now to return that support during her struggle for life.

Individual contributions may be sent to Judy Tallwing McCarthy, P.O. Box 3781, Portland, Oregon 97208-3781.

Portland Archdiocese site of papal protest

The Portland chapter of American Atheists has planned an information picket at the Catholic Archdiocese of Portland at 2838 East Burnside, September 18, 5 to 7 p.m., to coincide with planned demonstrations against Pope John Paul II during the Pope's stopovers in San Francisco.

The increasingly anti-gay, anti-feminist, anti-choice, anti-birth control, and other reactionary positions of the Catholic Church can be laid directly at the feet of Pope John Paul II. It is important that American citizens who disagree make their views known so that the American people will acknowledge that everyone does not agree with the dangerous positions of the Catholic church.

Gay people especially have suffered at the hands of this Pope — he has called homosexuality an intrinsic evil. The Catholic church across our nation has consistently used its power and wealth to stifle all gay rights legislation and gay people need to point out the hatred and intolerance displayed by the Catholic church directed specifically at their lifestyle.
