Defeat Bork Supreme Court Nomination

Citing Judge Bork's extreme right-wing record and past insensitivity to civil rights/civil liberties issues, a broad cross-section of civil rights and women's groups have pledged to oppose him. They argue his confirmation could tip the Court balance and lead to erosion of past civil rights gains.

Advocates of lesbian-gay rights point to his record of opposition to gay protection. One of his best known opinions states, "Private, consensual homosexual conduct is not constitutionally protected." He described arguments of pro-fairness advocates as "completely frivolous."

Activists point to high stakes. The Court will not only address privacy and gay employment cases, but critical cases relating to the AIDS crisis. Gay lobbying groups have joined the coalition opposing Bork's confirmation. But they need our help! One civil rights leader said, "There's no question the mobilization of the grassroots is one of our most critical tasks."
