

out

about town

3 • SATURDAY

New Behaviors — Safer Sex Workshops for Gay and Bisexual Men. Today from noon to 4 p.m., Mike Gorton, Clinical Supervisor, On Track, Inc., of Medford will lead a workshop on "Meeting and Bonding in New and Continuing Relationships." Held at Job Council, 3069 Crater Lake Avenue, Medford, sponsored by People for People with AIDS, 773-8146.

Mexican Dinner Benefit. Authentic Mexican food (choice of meatless dish, also) served from 5-8 p.m. in the social hall at MCC, 1644 NE 24th at Broadway. Members of "Women of Color" are fundraising to send Portland women to the first Latin American/Caribbean Lesbian Feminist Conference in Mexico. Tickets and conference information available at A Woman's Place Bookstore, 1431 NE Broadway.

Pieces of Truth, a personal theater performance for women performed by Cindy Lucrecia, Kaseja O. La Rosa, Mara, NiAodagain, tonight at 8 p.m. in the Whiteaker School, 21 N. Grand, Eugene. $3-7 sliding scale. Childcare provided, ASL interpreted, and accessible to wheelchairs. For more info call 342-7332.

4 • SUNDAY

The Lesbian Community Project presents the First Annual Lesbian Pool Tournament, Singles, Doubles Elimination, $5 entry fee, $50 1st place cash prize. Sign up at 1 p.m., play starts at 2 p.m. at the Primary Domain, 1033 NW 16th. For more information call 233-9079.

The Oregon Gay Rodeo Association presents Come Play with the Cowboys and See How the West Was Really Won. Help join us at our first fundraiser. All you can drink Beer Bust at Silent Partners Lounge and Restaurant, 1810 NW Lovejoy St., Sunday, October 4, 1987 — from 2:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m., $3.00 donation at the door.

5 • MONDAY

Ample Opportunity, a health organization for fat women, is having a clothing sale, women's size 18 and up, today, 1-4 p.m. at Friendly House, 26th and NW Savier. For more information, call 233-1707.

6 • TUESDAY

Gay Car Club Meeting: Northwest Scenic Cruisers Gay Car Club is a new organization for those in the community with a common interest in collectors and special interest automobiles and in the development of exciting social activities centered around them. We have open meetings every first Tuesday of each month at 7 p.m. to discuss club activities, scheduled social events, etc. Anyone interested is welcome to attend, you need not be a member; and there is no charge. The next meeting is at Pietro's Engine House Pizza, at the Jantzen Beach Center next to McDonald's, tonight at 7 p.m. Pizza and beverages are available for purchase. For further information contact Jim at 281-0330.

7 • WEDNESDAY

A second meeting will be held to explore ways of combating the right-wing initiative to repeal the Portland City Ordinance which prohibits discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation of city employees. There will be a discussion of possible avenues the gay and lesbian community can take in reaction to the initiative. The meeting will be facilitated by the ACLU Commission on Gay and Lesbian Rights and will be held in Room C Portland Building (1120 SW 5th), tonight at 7 p.m. There is free parking under the building after 5 p.m.

9 • FRIDAY

The San Francisco Mime Troupe is coming to town with a new comedy spy/thriller, The Mozambique Capér. It's a powerful, insightful and humorous look at America's foreign policy. Catch it tonight and tomorrow night at the Northwest Service Center, 1819 NW Everett, Portland, 8 p.m.

Proceeds will benefit the Ben Linder Memorial Fund and Portlanders Organized for Southern Africa Freedom. Tickets are $10/advance and $12 at the door. For more information call 236-7916.

Mary Fortenza-Fong, Laurel Leverton, and Colleen McIntosh will present a showing of new dance works entitled Something in Common at Echo Theatre tonight and tomorrow at 8 p.m. Tickets are $4.00 at the door, for reservations, call 231-1232.

10 • SATURDAY

Join Great Womyn for an easy walk on Forest Park Trail, today at 10:30 a.m. Meet at parking lot near Western Forestry Center at OMSI.

Come walk with Susan B. Anthony, Mary McLeod Bethune, Sojourner Truth, and other famous feminists from history! In honor of the bicentennial of the Constitution and the re-introduction of the ERA, the Portland NOW Walkathon will feature women representing leaders from the early women's movement. The walkathon will begin at 10:30 a.m., today, at Abigail Scott Duniway Park. Participants will walk ten kilometers through downtown Portland to Terry Schunk Plaza, where a rally will feature brief presentations by those marchers who are representing famous feminists. Actresses from the New Rose Theatre will perform portions of This Thing I Do, the hit show about suffragists in America.

This year's Walk for Equal Rights will be an opportunity to join in the spirit of the early feminists and to pledge support for the cause to which they devoted their lives: equality under the law.

In Plain Black and White: Coming Together is an all-live variety benefit show featuring a cast of multi-talented Imperial Sovereign Rose Court, Metropolitan Music Community, Living Communion, and Metropolitan Community Church — Portland individuals and groups. Tonight, 7:30-10:30 p.m. at the Metropolitan Community Church, 1644 NE 16th, Portland, tickets are $4, available through Pentultimate Vision, PO Box 2277, Portland, 97208. This event benefits the Brinker Fund, Juniper House, Metropolitan Community Church and sending a PWA to the March on Washington.

11 • SUNDAY

Join thousands of lesbians and gay men today for the March on Washington For Lesbian And Gay Rights. Assemble at 9 a.m. at the Ellipse, 17th & Constitution Avenue (behind the White House). March starts at noon followed by a rally at the Capitol, West Terrace. (202) 783-1828 for more information.

Lesbian Mothers and Their Children, women thinking of having children, women living with children and women who would like to meet women with children are invited to a free buffet brunch today at 11 a.m. in the Banquet Room at Old Wives' Tale Restaurant. There will be informal socializing and networking to plan future gatherings for women and children. Call 282-1529 for further information.

Add to your art collection, have a fabulous evening and help fund care desperately needed for AIDS patients and Portland's first annual ART/AIDS Benefit. Over 300 artists and 28 galleries are participating in ART/AIDS Gallery Walk and sale. Finish with a "Visual Experience" and refreshments in the Oregon Art Institute's Sculpture Court. All proceeds will be used to provide long-term care and education about AIDS. ART/AIDS — today at 4 p.m. For ticket information, call Powell's Bookstore, 228-1108.

13 • TUESDAY

The Lesbian Community Project is very pleased to present an evening with Mireya Lucero, a leader in the El Salvadoran Women's Movement. At 25, Mireya has been an activist for nine years working on education, child care, health and agricultural reform. She has prevailed through great personal tragedy having lost nine family members at the hands of government security forces. She is a compelling speaker. Her story will touch you and enlighten you to facts that never appear in the Oregonian or other mainstream press. She will speak tonight, 7 p.m., Room 296, Smith Center, Portland State University.

14 • WEDNESDAY

Portland NOW is sponsoring a Toy Sale, featuring Discovery Toys, a line of non-sexist, non-violent toys sold only through home demonstration. A large selection of wrapping paper, ribbons, and gift totes will also be for sale.

Tonight, 7:30 p.m. at the Northwest Service center, 1819 NW Everett, Portland.

15 • THURSDAY

Feminist Eyewitness Report: Revolutionary Cuban Women is the topic of Alfre Woodard and Danny Glover star as Winnie and Nelson Mandela in the HBO pictures presentation Mandela. Wednesday, October 28 at 8 p.m. the NWFVC presents a free showing.

guest speaker Loma Lockwood, recently returned from Cuba. She will evaluate the effect of social change on the role of women in a still evolving revolutionary society. Radical Women meeting, tonight, 6:30 p.m., Multnomah County Central Library, 801 S.W. 10th Avenue. Everyone is welcome. For more information call 249-8067. Wheelchair accessible.

16 • FRIDAY

Tonight and tomorrow at 8 p.m. Echo Theatre will present an evening of clown and puppet theatre for adults and families featuring Arina Isaacson. She will concentrate on the history of Doll Play in her own life as seen through the eyes of the child and through the eyes of the adult.

Advance tickets for Arina Isaacson are $6.00 for adults and $3.50 for children and seniors and are available at Artichoke Music, Laughing Horse Books, A Woman's Place Bookstore and Echo Theatre. Tickets are $7.00 for adults and $4 for children and seniors at the door.

17 • SATURDAY

"I like to dance, eat, drink and work for peace & justice. What can I do?" Attend the 3rd annual Give Peace A Dance today and tomorrow at Amato's. This dance-a-thon is a benefit for Oregon SANE, PCASC and Oregon Peaceworks. Dancing from 11 a.m. today till 2 a.m. tomorrow. For more information call 274-7026.

18 • SUNDAY

Lesbian Business Owners and Aspiring Entrepreneurs are invited to a potluck brunch for informal socializing and business networking on Sunday, October 18 at 11 a.m. Let's see if Type A's can relax together! Call for location, 282-1529.

19 • MONDAY

Diane Stein, author of The Kwan Yin, Book of Changes and The Women's Spirituality Book will be in Corvallis today. Her appearance is sponsored by WICCA and Grass Roots Bookstore. Call 752-2342 for more information.

20 • TUESDAY

Lesbians and AIDS — is the topic of the Lesbian Forum at the Westminster Presbyterian Church, 1624 NE Hancock, 7:30 p.m. tonight.