

On October 11, 1987 at 5 p.m. 850,000 lesbians and gays assembled on the Capitol Mall in Washington, D.C.

The gay/lesbian press informs, enlightens and validates more than 25 million lesbians and gays nationwide.

Vol. 3 No. 1
FREE
just out

Exclusive! Randy Shilts speaks out about being outspoken

LCP: Community beyond commonality. How does it fare one year later?

The March on Washington for Lesbian and Gay Rights. Six pages of photos

October 16, 1987 • Vol. 18, No. 42

gay COMMUNITY NEWS
OCTOBER 4-10, 1987
VOLUME 15
NO. 12
BIPAD: 65498
$1.00

More than a march
Six busy days around the big event spark new activism!

75¢ Outside of D.C./Baltimore Areas

The Washington Blade
THE GAY WEEKLY OF THE NATION'S CAPITAL

The National March takes Washington by surprise

by Lisa M. Kane
When about 40 thousand tried to march for gay rights in Washington last month, they were joined with vigor by the thousands around. Last weekend, they brought their "eggsplained" banner to Washington to

Windy City Times

Volume 3, Number 4 Chicago's Gay and Lesbian Newsweekly October 15, 1987

The largest gay and lesbian march in history
'Good for the world for comin' out—when we come out it's good for the world!'

Just Out
P.O. Box 15117
Portland, OR 97215
503-236-1252

Just Out
P.O. Box 15117
Portland, OR 97215

Dated Material Do Not Delay

BULK RATE
U.S. POSTAGE

PAID

Portland, OR
Permit No. 1673

Address Correction Requested