

Portland Oregon

June 18 will mark the 13th annual Lesbian and Gay Pride march through Portland. The march will start about noon at the North Park Blocks, located between 8th and 9th avenues at Burnside and Davis streets. The walk will proceed to Waterfront Park, where there will be an array of entertainment and speakers beginning at 1 pm. There will also be a beer garden and booth displays with art, food and information about organizations.

The Lesbian and Gay Pride Committee 1988 issued this statement: "As the commercial says, 'If every person volunteered one hour of time . . . There are many groups in need of help, and ours is no exception. There is a need for task workers to help out the morning and day of the march and rally. There is a need for people willing to work as security during the march or rally. We will provide training and a free T-shirt; we just need people to fill them. We also need ASL interpreters to work an hour or two during the rally. If there is anything you can do to help us out, please call 232-8233.

"Two other groups, Esther's Pantry and Juniper and Assisi Houses, are also in need of donations of non-perishable foods, time and/or money. Donations to Esther's Pantry can be made at the Embers, 110 NW Broadway. If you are interested in volunteering time at the Assisi House, call Kathy at 243-9421; to make donations, call John at 297-5163."
