

"GIVE ME THE KEYS!"

*Four words you may have heard in a recent Coors Light TV commercial.
Four words that can save a life. Not a challenge or a test of character, but this simple expression of good will: If you or someone you know has had too much to drink, please let someone else drive.*

At Coors Light, we value your friendship and want you to be around to enjoy our products for a long time to come.
