

"GIVE METHE KEYS."

Four words you may have heard in a recent Coors Light TV commercial. Four words that can save a life. Not a challenge or a test of character, but this simple expression of good will: If you or someone you know has had too much to drink, please let someone else drive.

At Coors Light, we value your friendship and want you to be around to enjoy our products for a long time to come.

Coast Distributing

Cools, LIGHT

