

The FUTURE

LESBIAN AND

GAY PRIDE 1990

"Look to the Future" Saturday June 16

Celebrate Oregon's largest Lesbian and Gay Pride event at a new location and bring your walking shoes. This year's Lesbian and Gay Pride March, Saturday, June 16, will be longer than ever at 1.1 mile. Formation will be in the North Park Blocks. The march steps off at noon. The rally site is at Tom McCall Waterfront Park, in the bowl south of the Hawthorne Bridge and below the Marriott Hotel, from approximately 1 to 6 pm.

Headlining the rally will be our guest speaker Karin Schwartz, public affairs officer for the National Gay and Lesbian Alliance Against Defamation (GLAAD). She will address gay and lesbian community empowerment in the '90s and will be featured in a roundtable discussion on anti-gay violence and community networking on Monday evening, June 18.

Musically speaking, jam to the sounds of Vital Moves, featuring Kate Sullivan and Barb Galloway, Margo Tufo and the Blues Revue, and The Jay Harris Band. Emcees Carol Steinel and Howie Bagdadonutz will provide comic relief to the day's events.

Food and beverage will be plentiful. Over 50 booths will pack Waterfront Park with pride. Be ready for the Rosetown Ramblers and the longest line dance in Portland's history.

The Mayor of Portland, the Honorable J.E. "Bud" Clark has designated the week of June 16-24 as Lesbian and Gay Pride Week. Some events during that week include:

Homo-genized, a gay and lesbian performance festival, June 15-17, Echo Theatre, 231-1232; The Stonewall Run, June 10, call Portland Frontrunners for more information; Community roundtable discussion with Karin Schwartz, Cathy Siemens and Greg Asher, June 18, 232-8233; The Third Gay and Lesbian Film Festival, co-sponsored by Cinema 21 and Just Out, June 22-25, call Cinema 21 for more information; Portland Gay Men's Chorus Concert, June 23-24, call PGMC for more information; Passion in Paradise, the Mr./Miss/and Ms. Gay Oregon Pageant, June 23, call the Rose Court at 287-7058; Peacock in the Park, June 24, a benefit for the Audrey Edwards Scholarship Fund, 284-6289; The Rosebowl Classic, an international bowling tournament, June 2-3, 234-0237; Leadership Networking Forum, June 11, 223-8299; Portland Lesbian Choir's Variety Show, June 30, for more information, call the Eastside Performance Center.

The future is only a moment away, so plan on being in Portland on Saturday June 16.
