

out about town

"Paris is Burning", a documentary on voguing and the drag balls of Harlem, is showing at the Broadway Metroplex. Call 249-6960 for showtimes. "Paris is Burning", directed by Jennie Livingston, was threatened with a boycott by the Christian Film and Television Commission the film is achieving record-breaking business across the country.

september

TUES
3

Scenes from Portland's 1991 Lesbian and Gay Celebration will open NightScene TV's 3rd season. (11:30 pm, Cable ch. 11, Ch. 38 in Vancouver, 224-2489.)

First Tuesday Coffeehouse with Maria Ortiz, Leisa Crofton and Maureen Kelly. (7:30 pm, Bijou Cafe, 132 SW 3rd, $2, 288-2894.)

WED
4

Community-wide meeting to work on the No on Hate campaign. Everyone's energy is needed to fight against the latest assault from the Oregon Citizens Alliance. (6:30 pm, Multnomah Arts Center, 7688 SW Capitol Hwy.)

THUR
5

Music by Curtis Salgado and Terry Robb will kick off the American Civil Liberties Union's 1991 "Uncensored Celebration". Throughout the month of September, bookstores, art galleries and theaters will celebrate our right to free expression. (Noon, Pioneer Courthouse Square, 274-8257.)

The following art galleries will open new shows tonight:
 In Her Image Gallery, 3208 SE Hawthorne - Song to the Four Directions with work by Dorothy Young, Carmen Rodriguez, Isadora Forrest and others.
 Itchy Fingers, 720 NW 23rd - metal works by Terry Porter.
 Cup and Saucer Cafe, 3566 SE Hawthorne - portraits and other works on paper and wood by Marko Polo.
 Graystone Gallery, 3279 SW Hawthorne - drawings, mixed media and Japanese woodblock prints by Elaine Chandler and ceramic sculpture by Victoria Lynn Shaw.
 Jamison Thomas Gallery, 1313 NW Glisan - linoleum block prints by Dennis Cunningham.
 Oregon School of Arts and Crafts, 8245 SW Barnes Rd. - twined weavings and baskets by Mary Schlick and pastel drawings by Angelina Wooley.

Roloff/Wood Gallery, 811 NW Glisan - acrylics by Andree Mendenhall Mahoney. Organizational meeting to discuss how to gain insurance benefits for domestic partners for OHSU and state employees. (7 pm, MCC, 1644 NE 24th, 238-9628.)

Performance artist Sha Sha Higby and the Do Jump Movement Theater will present an evening of acrobatics, dance, comedy, music and juggling. (8 pm, Echo Theatre, 1515 SE 37th, $8/adults, $5/students/seniors/children, tickets available at the door 231-1232.)

FRI
6

Forest Group potluck and planning meeting. Bring your own table setting. (potluck/6:30 pm, meeting/7:30 pm, 235-3765.)

Women with Women with Infants and Toddlers hosts a camping weekend at Cape Lookout State Park. (Louis, 288-7764.)

SAT
7

A garage sale to benefit the work of Radical Women. Items can still be donated. To arrange pick-up call 289-7082. (10 am - 4 pm, 7240 SW Carlton.)

Barbara Bernstein and Cheryl Castile perform Acid Folk at Captain Bean's. (9 pm, 1720 SE 12th.)

The Third Annual Capitol Forum Mr. and Ms. Salem Leather contest (9:30 pm, Rich Gardens Restaurant, Salem, $5, 585-3747.)

SUN
8

The fifth annual From All Walks of Life pledge walk will begin from Tom McCall Waterfront Park. Proceeds from the walk will benefit Cascade AIDS Project, Oregon Minority AIDS Coalition, HIV Day Center, and Our House of Portland. (10 am, 233-WALK.)

Women in Academia Sunday Group will discuss the psychological burden of not being out at work on campus. (11 am-1 pm, 519 SW Park, #310.)

MON
9

The Diversity Awareness Study Group meets to celebrate our diversity and to unlearn racism and other "-isms." All interested women are welcome. (239-0205 for time and place.)

Country Line Dance lessons sponsored by the Lesbian Community Project and taught by Cindy. (7 pm, MCC, 1644 NE 24th, $3/LCP members, $4/general public, 288-2894.)

One with Heart presents Women Self Defense today and tomorrow (Registration fee is $65 in advance and $75 at the door. To register call 231-1999.)

A six-week class in Ballroom Dancing taught by Patricia Comman, begins tonight. After the lesson, dance to the sound of the big bands. (7 pm-8:30 pm, every Monday, Buckman School Gym, 320 SW 16th, $50, 232-6824.)

Super-Jacks, a men only safe-sex party club meets every Monday. Over 21 only. (9:30 pm-10:30 pm, 4541 N. Williams, near Going.)

TUES
10

Lesbians Enjoying Science planning meeting and potluck. (6:30 pm, 788-0223 for information.)

Shan Lealie, artist and owner of Crone Graphics, talks about her art and her involvement as co-host of NightScene, Portland's Gay and Lesbian TV show. (9 pm, KBOO 90.7FM.)

Video clips from this year's Peacock in the Park celebration. Footage of the entertainment and interviews with the performers will be featured. (11:30 pm, NightScene TV, Cable Ch. 11 and Ch. 38 in Vancouver, 224-2489.)

WED
11

Wednesday, Sept. 11 Pick up your United Negro College Fund walk-a-thon sign-up sheets. (Noon, Pioneer Courthouse Square, 223-8890.)

SisterSpirit Celebration Planning Meeting. All women welcome, wheelchair accessible. (7:30 pm, 408 SW 2nd, suite 426, 294-0645.)

THUR
12

Alice DiMichele, one of the Northwest's finest folk artists, will perform tonight. Her powerful voice sings clear messages on issues ranging from environmental protection, peace and justice, and lesbian, gay and human rights. (8 pm, Westminster Presbyterian Church, 1624 NE Hancock. Tickets are $5 in advance and $6 at the door and can be purchased at Ladd's Editions, Catbird Seat Bookstore and Artichoke Music, 288-2894.)

FRI
13

The Northwest Women's Music Celebration featuring Motherlode, Connie Cohen, Kate Sullivan and other women musicians. The purpose of the celebration is to nurture and support each other as we discover the music within us. Workshops and performances will take place all week-end. (Sept. 13-15, YMCA Camp Collins, $105-$125, sliding scale, includes all workshops, food and lodging. Registration forms available at Ladd's Editions, Artichoke Music or send $50 deposit to NWMC, 7835 SE Madison, Portland, Or. 97215.)

The ABC/WIBC Gay and Lesbian Bowling League begins its third season. There is still room available on some of the teams and more teams are welcome. (6:30 pm, Pro 300 Lanes, 3031 SE Powell, $7, 231-0571.)

SAT
14

Lesbians Enjoying Science sponsors a weekend trip to Mt. St. Helens. (RSVP, Pat, 235-9553.)

Healing Sexual Abuse, an eight-week class designed for those who know they've experienced sexual abuse, as well as for those who suspect they have. ($120 or $15 per week. Call to register 238-1604. Instructor: Patti Davis.)