

out about town

july

2 THURSDAY

In Her Image Gallery exhibits the life masks of Loraine Fischer, whose work includes In America They Call Us Dykes, an impressionistic portrait of a craggy face. (Opening, 6 pm, through Aug. 30, 3208 SE Hawthorne Blvd., 231-3726.)

Galleri 8 announces the July showing of Home of the Brave, a photo/installation piece with an emphasis on freedom, expression and survival. The context is a 15 x 15 American flag composed of 70 portraits of mostly local "strong and brave" women. (Opening, 6-11 pm, through July 31, 314 SW 9th St., Studio #8, 321-5148.)

The Northwest Service Center presents The Wild Hearts, a progressive folk and wild country trio featuring the artistry of Robin Flower, Nancy Vogl and Libby McLaren. (8pm, 1819 NW Everett St., $10/advance, $12/door, 228-6972.)

3 FRIDAY

Funk! Funk! Funk! Four of Portland's funkiest bands perform a dance concert at Pioneer Courthouse Square to raise awareness and support for the Cascade AIDS Project and to give Portland a free, all ages, outdoor summer concert like they've never heard before. The bands are Funk-n-Judy, The Boomers, Passion Fatal, and ShockLottery. (5:30-10:30 pm, Corner of SW Yamhill and Broadway, 646-5643.)

5 SUNDAY

Connie Cohen, songwriter, performs at the Cup and Saucer Cafe. (7 pm, Sundays, 3566 SE Hawthorne Blvd., 236-6001.)

6 MONDAY

Linda Kliever and Paul Dahlquist are showing photographs of the Walk for Love and Justice and Lesbian and Gay Pride. (Closes tonight, Blue Sky Gallery, 1231 NW Hoyt Ave.)

Ava Williams performs Monday evenings at Starky's. (6:30 pm, 2913 SE Stark St., 230-7980.)

7 TUESDAY

First Tuesday Coffeehouse features Nan Collie of Motherlode with Maureen Kelly and more! (7:30 pm, Bijou Cafe, 231 SW 3rd Ave., 233-2047.)

Tune in tonight to Night Scene, Portland's gay cable television show, as Julia Reichert discusses her two Academy Award-winning documentary films and Emma and Elvis. (11:30 pm, Ch 11 [Multnomah and Washington Cos.], Ch 2 [Clackamas Co.], Ch 9 [Yamhill Co.], and Ch 49 [Clark Co.]. Programs are also broadcast on Sundays, 6:30 pm, Ch 33 [Multnomah Co. only]. 224-Nite.)

10 FRIDAY

In a benefit for the No On Hate PAC, Summer Angels, Some Are Not! perform Deep Doo Doo In '92, their satirical, musical revue. The Summer Angels parody sports, sex, shopping, the Woodstock generation, the Gulf War and other social foibles with original and inventive music and comedy. (8 pm, Northwest Service Center, 1819 NW Everett St., $5-20 self-determined sliding scale, available at Music Millenium and the door, 222-9885.)

11 SATURDAY

Woman affirming videos are played for free at It's My Pleasure. See Out About Town: Social: It's My Pleasure for a complete listing of activities at the store. (Noon-5 pm, 4526 SE Hawthorne Blvd., 236-0505.)

ABCairs In a New Light, a two-hour prime-time AIDS information and entertainment special, introduced by Elizabeth Taylor and hosted by Linda Lavin, Bruce Davison and Robert Guillaume. (Check your local listings for more information.)

Right to Privacy PAC holds its annual summertime social and political fundraiser. Invited guests include Secy. of State Phil Klesling, State Reps. Gail Shibley and Avel Gordley. (3-6 pm, 1841 SW Montgomery Dr., $25, 228-5825.)

Motherlode will perform to benefit the Friends of Gail Shibley at 8 pm, Sat., July 11 at the Roseland Theater.

Motherlode, Izetta Smith and Naomi Littlebear Morena and Carol Steinel perform a benefit for Friends of Gail Shibley. Special guest emcees round out the evening. (8 pm, Roseland Theater, $12/advance, available at Ladd's Edition, It's My Pleasure and FASTIX, wheelchair accessible, no-smoking concert.)

Demonstrating against neo-Nazis on Whidbey Island last December forced Radical Women to postpone their holiday bazaar for seven months. (10 am, today and noon, Sunday, 7038 N Fairport Pl., to donate items, 289-7082.)

12 SUNDAY

Portland Women's Jug Band plays and shares good times. Bring a musical instrument and join in for a potluck picnic today. (2 pm, Laurelhurst Park, Section D.)

The Oregon State Drummer Contest has been rescheduled. Proceeds will go toward the No On Hate PAC. (8 pm, Darcelles, 208 NW 3rd Ave.)

14 TUESDAY

Members of No On Hate bring us up to date on the work they are doing and discuss the impact of the OCA on our communities. (9-10 pm, Bread and Roses, KBOO 90.7 FM.)

Join a broad-based coalition of AIDS caregivers, educators, activists, and service organizations in Portland for United For AIDS Action, to call on the nation's leaders to take action against AIDS. (5 pm, Pioneer Courthouse Square.)

15 WEDNESDAY

L.A. Law: Lesbians at Law is this month's Lesbian Forum topic. Katherine Brown and Katherine Tennyson will facilitate workshops on family law issues for non-traditional families. (7-9 pm, Metropolitan Community Church, 1644 NE 24th Ave., $2, wheelchair accessible, ASL interpreted, free childcare provided.)

16 THURSDAY

Adrienne Weller discusses the nature of SLAPP (Strategic Lawsuits Against Public Participation) suits in general and in particular the suit brought against Radical Women by OCA supporter and anti-abortionist Paul deParrie. (6:30 pm, Standard Plaza, 1100 SW 6th Ave., third floor, conference room A, 289-7082.)

Andrea Dworkin, lesbian feminist and anti-pornography activist speaks tonight in a benefit for the Council for Prostitution Alternatives. (7-9 pm, Portland State University, $5-20 sliding scale, 238-1219.)

17 FRIDAY

Join Nancy Black, a clinical psychologist, and Oz, a ceremonial artist for an extraordinary weekend journey into imagery, art, ritual, movement and magic. (Through Sun., July 19, Maryhurst College, $299, Connie Carmichael, 775-0295.)

The Theater of New Tricks presents Zoa Smith, Portland performance artist in a word/sound performance she calls Electronic Talkapella. The show consists of material from her newly released cassette, Audio Urban Tongue. (8 pm, tonight and Sat., Hollow Body Gallery, 314 NW 6th Ave., $5, 241-8622.)

Womansource hosts its 10th Annual Women's Gathering on beautiful, women-owned land. The weekend of events includes workshops and entertainment with vegetarian meals provided. (Through Sun., July 19, preregister, 488-1907.)

18 SATURDAY

Living Enrichment Center hosts Sam Keen, author of Fire In The Belly, in presenting his men-only workshop that will explore manhood, rites of passage, virility and passion. (9 am-5 pm, Earl A. Chiles Center, 5000 N Willamette Blvd., $75, available at Stiles for Relaxation, New Renaissance Bookshop, 526-9289.)

The Clothesline Project, sponsored by the Portland branch of Women's International League for Peace and Freedom (WILPF), will be displayed today only. 100 t-shirts depict violence against women and children. (Noon-4 pm, Peninsula Park, 282-3172.)

All families are welcome at a Lesbian Family Picnic. (Noon, Irvington Park, 774-0540.)

The American Diabetes Association hosts the Tour de Cure, a 20-mile bicycle ride in Eugene and Springfield. (Registration begins at 9:30 am, McDonald's parking lot on Coburg Rd., 343-0735.)

Desert Moon productions presents a Womyn's Country Two-Step Dance. (7-11 pm, lessons 7-8:30 pm, Condon School, 18th and Agate, Eugene, $3-5, 746-4106.)

The Jay Harris Quintet, featuring Suzi Stern, presents an evening of Latin rhythms, jazz melodies and carnival energy to benefit Soapstone, a retreat center for women writers. (8:30-midnight, Parent Child Services Building, 909 NE 52nd Ave., $12, available at Broadway Books, Conant and Conant Bookstore, Ladd's Editions, 232-9360.)

19 SUNDAY

The New Rose Theatre presents Adulto Orgasmo Escapes From The Zoo (Female Parts), a no-holds barred comedy in the vein of early feminism. (7 pm, tonight, 8 pm, Mon. and Tues., 904 SW Main St., $10, 222-2487.)

Diana A. Cohen, Kebo Drew and Carol Steinel challenge those who think they hate poetry to even try to be bored by Dykes Using Our Mouths: Revolutionary Poetics, a full-length show featuring readings of their original poetry and poems by womyn who have most inspired their work. Part of the proceeds will benefit Portland Lesbians of Color Group and Tateyeh Topa. (7 pm, Clinton Street Theater, 2522 SE Clinton St., suggested ticket price is your hourly wage, wheelchair accessible, ASL interpreted, 335-8355.)

25 SATURDAY

Gay, lesbian and bisexual alumni of Whitman College are invited to a get-acquainted picnic today. (641-6378.)

The Campaign for a Hate Free Oregon hosts the 1992 Oregon Freedom Walk, a 3.1 mile pledge walk. Walk as an individual or form a team. (7:30 am, Terry Shrunk Plaza, 232-4501.)

The Alan Collins AIDS Project is sponsoring a two-day intensive training for anyone working with people affected by HIV disease. (8:30 am-5:30 pm, today and Sunday, Smullin Center, Rogue Valley Medical Center, Medford, $25, 772-1777.)

26 SUNDAY

JJ's Back Room hosts a show to benefit No On Hate PAC. Enjoy the show and support an OCA-free Oregon. (7:30 pm, NW 7th and Lovejoy, 228-1899.)

29 WEDNESDAY

Yeeeha! k.d. lang at the Schnitz! (8 pm, Arlene Schnitzer Concert Hall, $19.50 and $21.50 reserved seating, 224-TIXX.)

30 THURSDAY

Raul Julia and William Hurt star as a homophobic political prisoner and a gay man, respectively, who are cell-mates in The Kiss of the Spider Woman, now showing at the Clinton St. Theater. (2522 SE Clinton St., 238-8899.)