

The Incredibly True of Two Adventure Girls in Tuxes

by Maribeth Seiber
and Brandy Higgins
Photos by E. Ann Hinds
and Linda Kiewer

We wondered just what kind of response we would actually get from the Just Out article in April. I didn't know what to expect. I had no idea what it could mean to anyone else that we were going to prom! I enjoyed reading the letters we got because they made me feel like I was doing something important. The letters were encouraging - I read them all twice. M.S.

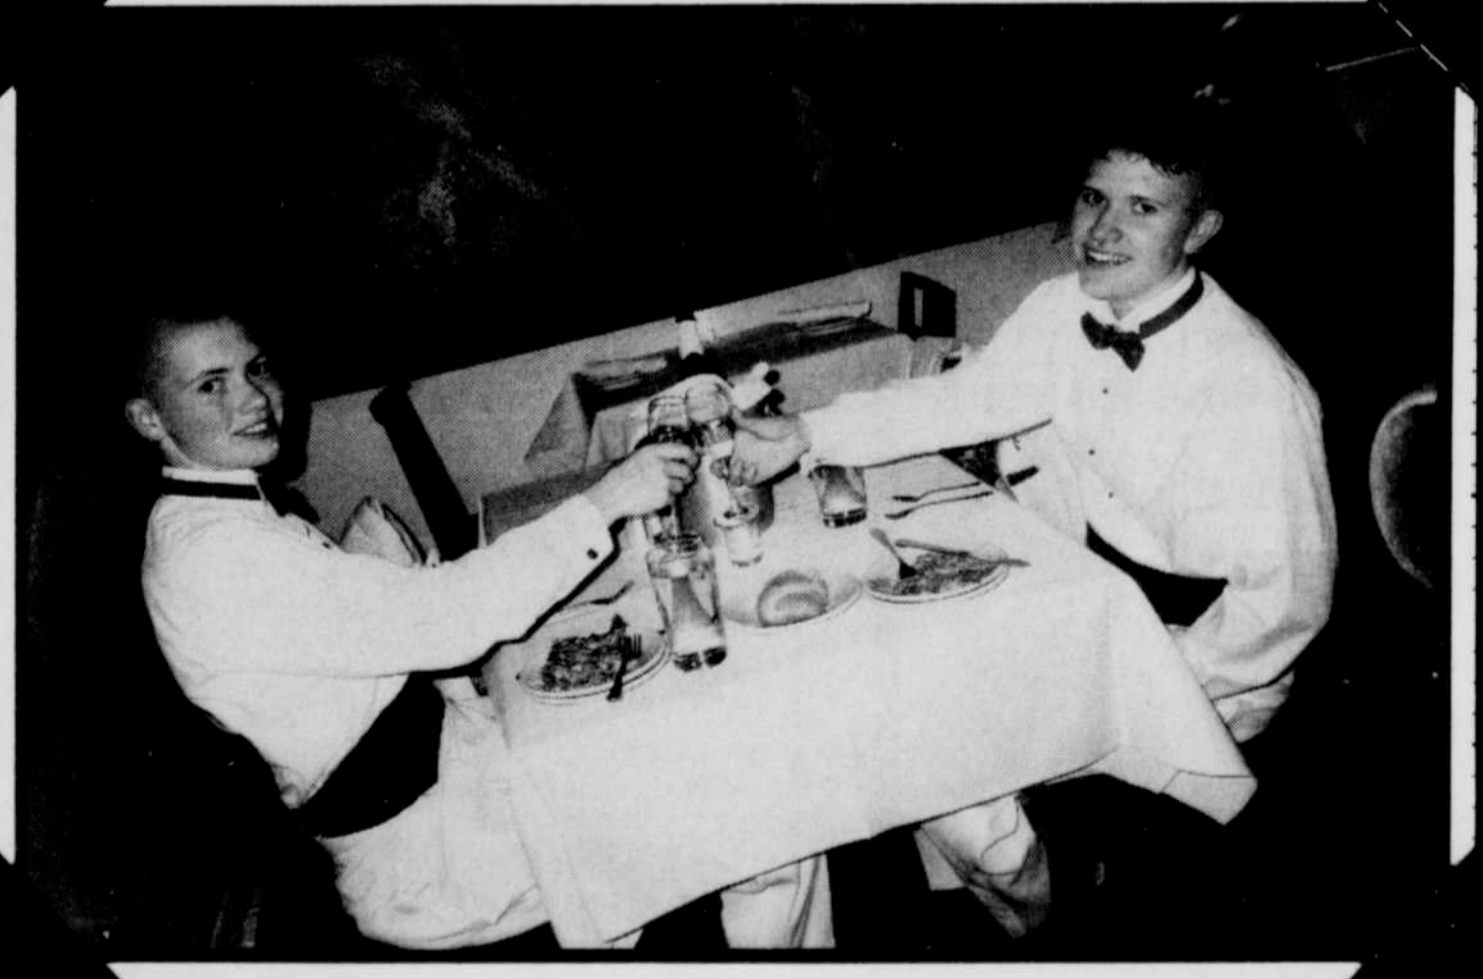

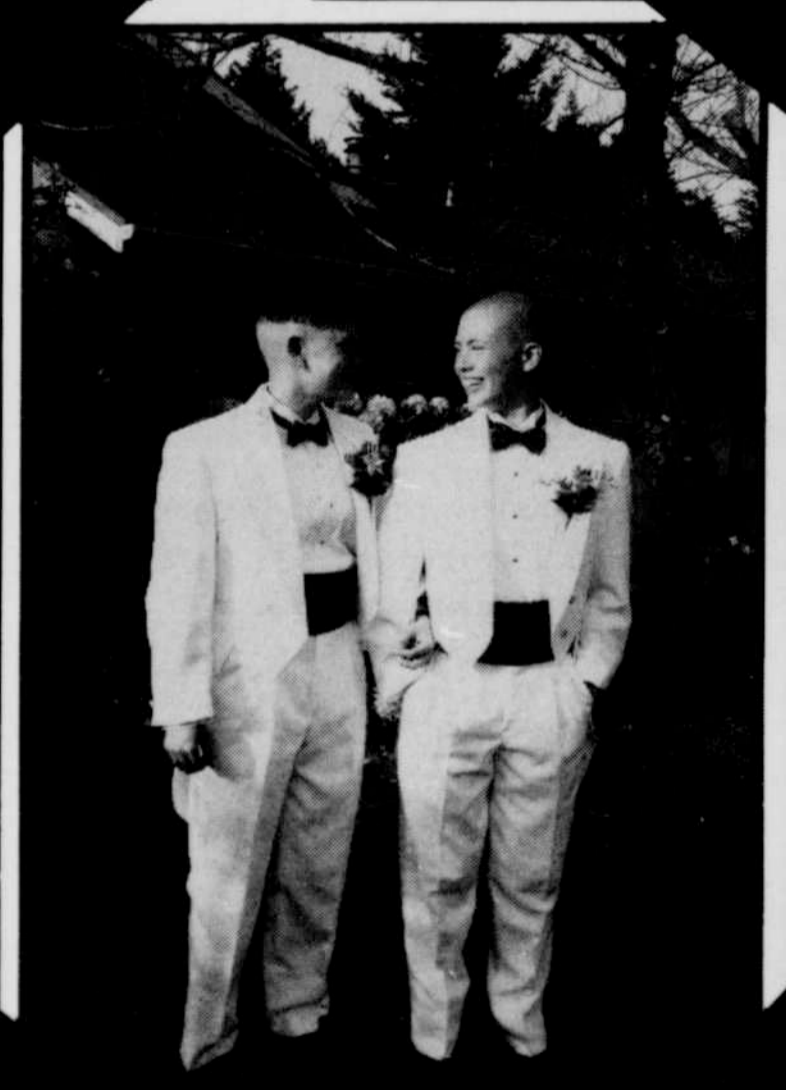

At first I had trouble getting the shirt not to balloon out. Mari saved me! "Slide your pockets there are holes that you put your hands in so you can pull your shirt down." B.H.

There is just something fun about getting all dressed up in store-bought clothes you don't own and parading around for pictures - especially when the pictures could possibly end up in a newspaper. M.S.

The flowers were beautiful... delicate but not too femme. Mari and I still have them. Carol (Mom) dried the flowers out for us. Mr. Labor Florist located the flowers. Unsever designed our arrangements. He did a beautiful job. B.H.

My evening was great! I got to go with the person I really wanted to go with. B.H.

The evening was wonderful and I'm glad I had the chance to go with my girlfriend. I'm very thankful for all the people who helped pay for our tickets and tuxes. You all made the evening a great one! M.S.

Darla brought us Martinelli's and prepared it just like champagne. I felt so groan up, and relaxed. Everything was just so perfect for Mari (on left) and me. Thanks to Wild Abandon Restaurant. B.H.