

PHOTO BY BONNIE TINKER

It's not all work: Teen volunteers get to have plenty of fun at the YWCA's CampOut for gay and lesbian families at Camp Westwind on the Oregon Coast. (Here, the 1994 volunteers ride surfside.) To volunteer at this year's CampOut, Aug. 24-27, contact Love Makes A Family (see Volunteers section of Out About Town, p. 22).

It's Drag Queen Tag Team Whipped-Cream Wrestling at City Nightclub. A benefit for the David Evans Memorial Scholarship Fund for Gay and Lesbian Youth. (Doors 10 pm, 13 NW 13th Ave., $5 cover, 224-CITY.)

29 SATURDAY

The Forest Group hikes along the Clackamas River; 7.5 miles round trip, 1,300-foot cumulative elevation gain. (293-1358.)

The Friends of People With AIDS Foundation holds its second Best Friends Walk for Friends, a benefit dog walk at Laurelhurst Park. Darcelle XV will host the event. Pledge sheets are available in Portland at Pet Set, 1411 SW 14th Ave.;

Jelly Bean, 721 SW 10th Ave.; and Man's Best Friend, 3445 SE Hawthorne Blvd. (9 am registration; 10 am walk, for pledge sheets and information: Corey Baker 245-7428.)

D. Travers Scott performs the satirical monologue Love Inventory as part of the Portland Art Museum's Biennial Performance Festival. The show will be interpreted for the hearing impaired. (8 pm, Commandery, Museum North Wing, 1119 SW Park Ave., $10 general; $8 members, seniors, students and working artists [tickets may be ordered by phone at 226-2811, ext. 220, during regular business hours.]

See the Monica Samora Show at City Nightclub featuring female impersonators from the world-famous Darcelle XV Showbar. (Doors 10 pm, 13 NW 13th Ave., $6 cover, 224-CITY.)

30 SUNDAY

The Rose City Softball Association plays its first post-season playoff tournament at Alberta Park. The winner represents Portland at the 18th Gay Softball World Series in Seattle. (Games begin at 9:30 am; semi-finals at 1 pm; championship game at 3 pm, fields no. 1 and no. 2, Northeast Twenty-second Avenue and Ainsworth Street, 244-8520 or 281-7637.)

Right To Privacy Inc. holds its fourth annual Garden Party in Sherwood, Ore. Speakers in the lovely outdoor setting will be Portland Mayor Vera Katz, U.S. Rep. Elizabeth Furse, and state Reps. Gail Shibley and Chuck Carpenter. A celebrity hat auction will also take place. (3-6 pm, $25, for information and tickets: RTP 228-5825.)

31 MONDAY

Queer Night at LaLuna features DJ Oyan. (9 pm, 215 SE Ninth Ave., $3, 241-LUNA.)

august

1 TUESDAY

First Tuesday Coffeehouse features the all-woman band Blush. Also: Theresa Monet, Adrienne Gunn and Diana Cohen. (7:30 pm, Bijou Cafe, 132 SW Third Ave., $3 at door, 778-7636.)

3 THURSDAY

Pride Northwest hosts a community meeting. Come with your comments on the Lesbian and Gay Pride 1995 celebration and your suggestions for next year. (7 pm, Metropolitan Community Church, 2400 NE Broadway.)

Thalia Zepatos speaks and reads from her new book, co-authored with Elizabeth Kaufman, Women for a Change: A Grassroots Guide to Activism and Politics. The book provides women with effective strategies for turning strong personal convictions into political activism. (7:30 pm, Powell's City of Books, 1005 W Burnside St., free, 228-0540.)

Local playwright Jessica Litwak reprises her play Emma Goldman: Love, Anarchy and Other Affairs on the 80th anniversary of Goldman's arrest in Portland for distributing birth control pamphlets. The play is a humorous and poetic homage to the legendary feminist/anarchist. Six performances only—reserve tickets early. Air conditioned; wheelchair accessible. (8 pm Thursday-Saturday, Aug. 3-12, Pearl Building, second floor, 512 NW 13th Ave., Thursdays: $10 advance [tickets: Fastixx 224-8499, It's My Pleasure], $12 at door; Fridays-Saturdays: $12 advance, $14 at door.)

4 FRIDAY

The Community Leaders Resource Project holds an Open Leadership Support Session. Participants work on skills for their growth and development as leaders in their communities and organizations. Facilitated by Guadalupe Guajardo. (9:30-11 am, Pastoral Center, 2838 E Burnside St., free, 239-4001.)

See the theater and gallery listings in Out About Town.

Dykes To Watch Out For

