

(7:30 pm Dec. 7; 7 pm Dec. 10, Berg Swann Auditorium, 1219 SW Park Ave., $6 general; $5 members and seniors, 221-1156.)

The East Timor Action Network holds a candle-light vigil to commemorate the 1975 invasion of East Timor by Indonesia. Thousands of Timorese were slaughtered during the invasion; nearly one-third of the population died within the first few years from war-induced famine and the ongoing military campaigns. Most of Indonesia's weapons, and critical diplomatic support, were provided by the United States. Bring a candle. (4 pm, World Trade Center, SW Salmon and Front streets, information: 235-4986.)

Join Angels for a Hate Free America at a special concert and pre-show party with The Fallen Angel Choir. Fabulous food and door prizes. A benefit for Artists for a Hate Free America. (6:30 pm party; 8 pm concert, Scottish Rite Temple, $25, tickets and information: 222-6018.)

Join Bend's Beyond the Closet for its dinner and discussion series. (For information: 541-317-8966.)

Lee Mun Wah's film The Color of Fear is shown at 7 pm Dec. 1 at Portland State University

The Cabbage Lane Land Trust, a women's land collective, holds an auction and spaghetti dinner to raise funds for maintenance, repairs, taxes and balloon payments on its land in Wolf Creek. (4-10 pm, Umpqua Unitarian Universalist Church, 2165 NW Waters, Roseburg, $5, Fran 541-440-2272.)

Portland Marriott Hotel, lower level, $12.50 members; $17.50 nonmembers, 241-2222.)

Love Makes a Family Inc. hosts a holiday party for the kids and teens of gay and lesbian parents. Bring a snack to share and a game to play. (6-7:30 pm, LMAF office, Union Station, 228-3892.)

Gorilla Theatre from Outside In, Valerie and Vanessa, and Enid. (8 pm, 1807 NE 39th Ave., $10-$25 sliding scale, reservations: 287-7707.)

It's Nuts and Bolts Night at City Nightclub. Get your free nut or bolt at the door, find the person whose colored nut matches your bolt and win a fabulous prize. (10 pm doors, 13 NW 13th Ave., $5 cover, 224-CITY.)

8 FRIDAY

Learn the "jail house rock," at Country Western Dancing for Women. (7:30-10 pm, St. David's Parish Hall, 2800 SE Harrison St., $3 at door, 283-7651.)

9 SATURDAY

The Forest Group hikes the Wildwood Trail (287-4414), and takes an easy-to-moderate ski trip (239-9082).

It's Christmas party time with Southwest Washington Gay and Lesbian Socialites. Bring a wrapped gift from home, a game and your favorite food dish. (5-10 pm, Fruit Valley Community Center, information: Mike 360-260-2697 or 360-694-8970.)

Don't miss the December episode of In The Life, the gay and lesbian issues and culture program on PBS. (Midnight, local Oregon Public Television station.)

Kate Sullivan performs at the White Moon Cow Cafe in Tillamook County. (8:30 pm, $5 cover, 541-965-5101.)

City Nightclub hosts the 1995 Leather and Lace Investitures. Ms. Lace IX Shannon and Ms. Leather IX Belinda present a special show as they appoint the members of their teen lesbian court. (10 pm doors, 13 NW 13th Ave., $6 cover, 224-CITY.)

10 SUNDAY

The Vancouver Men's Chorus and Songspellers present their winter concert, Strike the Harp and Join the Chorus, at the First Congregational Church. (7:30 pm, 1220 NE 68th St., Hazel Dell, Wash., information: 360-695-2479 or 360-694-4920.)

Boy George rocks out at the Roseland Theater. Eve Gallagher opens. Must be 21 and older. (8 pm, $17.50 advance [tickets: Fastix outlets 224-8499 or 1-800-992-8499]; $20 at door.)

The Portland Art Museum's Northwest Film Center presents two films from its Out of Africa series: Shida and Matatizo from Tanzania, and A Certain Morning from Burkina Faso. (2 pm, Berg Swann Auditorium, 1219 SW Park Ave., $6 general; $5 members and seniors, 221-1156.)

Don't miss Be Queva's goodbye show, Make Love to Your Toaster, at City Nightclub. (10 pm doors, 13 NW 13th Ave., $3 cover, 224-CITY.)

11 MONDAY

The Portland Area Business Association holds its monthly luncheon meeting. Today's speaker: Oregonian columnist Margie Boule. Reservations required by Dec. 6. (11:30 am-1:15 pm,

12 TUESDAY

Join the Gentle Giants of Oregon at the Pioneer Place Food Court. Meet your chubby Santa and finish that shopping. (6:30 pm, chub line: 283-5650.)

14 THURSDAY

The Portland Art Museum's Northwest Film Center presents Godwin Mawuru's award-winning Zimbabwean film Neria. Also showing Dec. 17. (7:30 pm Dec. 14; 7 pm Dec. 17, Berg Swann Auditorium, 1219 SW Park Ave., $6 general; $5 members and seniors, 221-1156.)

15 FRIDAY

Acoustic rocker Maria Webster performs at the Hoyt Street Pub. (1036 NW Hoyt, free, 224-2414.)

The Lesbian Community Project and Love Makes a Family Inc. host Pride Bingo. (7-11 pm, Northwest Service Center, 1819 NW Everett St., 223-0071.)

The Portland Women's Theatre Company and local performers present a benefit for Sisters of the Road Cafe. Performers include Teresa Demerest, Michael Menger's Really Big Dance Co., Cindy Tennant, Sam Mowry, Marie Bellavia, the

16 SATURDAY

Take an intermediate ski trip with the Forest Group. (253-3631.)

Hike in Forest Park with the Mountain Men. (203-8677.)

Cris Williamson and Tret Fure bring their concert tour "Snow Angel—Songs for a Winter Evening" to the Spiritual Awareness Community Center in Bend for their only Oregon performance. A fund-raising reception for Beyond the Closet follows the concert. (7 pm, 157 NW Franklin, Bend, $15 advance [tickets: The Curiosity Shoppe, Bend, 541-382-3408; Mother Kali's Books, Eugene, 541-343-4864; Sound Peace, Ashland, 541-482-9625; It's My Pleasure, Portland, 503-236-0505]; $20 at door.)

SisterSpirit holds its tenth anniversary celebration potluck. All women welcome; sorry, not wheelchair accessible. (4-6 pm, Dun Sidhe, 2804 NE 42nd Ave.)

That's No Lady, That's Darcelle XV at City Nightclub. (10 pm doors, 13 NW 13th Ave., $6 cover, 224-CITY.)

See the theater and gallery listings in Out About Town.

Dykes To Watch Out For

