For the perfect holiday gift . . . We've got just the ticket! Portland Opera Presents . . .

Stephen Sondheim's

Sweeney Todd

THE Demon Barber OF FLEET STREET

February 17–25, 1996

(Two matinee performances February 18 & 25!)

Portland Civic Auditorium

What evil lurks in a quiet shop on London's Fleet Street? Beware when you enter Sweeney Todd's upstairs barbershop for a quick shave. A special ingredient gives downstairs tenant Mrs. Lovett's meat pies a distinctive flavor . . . could there be a connection between her recipe for success and Todd's penchant for taking a little too much off the top? This grand and ghoulish musical thriller soars to new heights under the direction of renowned film director Bruce Beresford, with spectacular new sets and costumes created in Portland Opera's design studios. Tickets $22-$65 (all tickets subject to handling charge)

Big Bad Wolf... and the Endangered Forest

(A World Premiere Musical) Music and Lyrics by Lawrence Goldberg Book by Margaret Kelso December 15-23, 1995

Matinee and Evening Performances

Dolores Winningstad Theater • PCPA

Come huff and puff with a Big Bad Wolf of the '90s! This world premiere musical combines a traditional fairy tale with a powerful environmental message as the wolf and his troupe of forest friends take on a mechanical "dragon" determined to demolish the forest. Banding together, these environmental superheroes overcome their differences in an effort to save their home.

Performed by the Resident Artists of the Portland Opera, this first-class production comes to life with spectacular new sets and costumes—your family won't want to miss this one!

Adults $10.00, Children (12 and Under) $8.00 Sponsored by Portland General Electric

Tickets and gift certificates are now on sale to the most entertaining gifts of the season!
