Wednesday, June 19th at 7:30 pm

Felice Picano uniquely captures American gay life and subculture during the last half of the twentieth century in his brilliantly written, extraordinarily entertaining saga, Like People in History (Penguin). Solid, cautious Roger Sansarc and flamboyant, mercurial Alistair Dodge are second cousins and lifelong friends. Through the lens of their complex, destructive, madcap yet enduring relationship—and their involvement with the handsome model, poet, and decorated Vietnam vet, Matt Loguidice, whom they both love—Picano chronicles and celebrates gay history from the 1950s through Woodstock, Stonewall, and Vietnam to San Francisco, Fire Island, and AIDS.
