

SEED THE FUTURE...

Portland is famed for its livability and its lush, tree-lined streets. But we're in danger of losing our legacy of trees to age, disease, urban growth and weather. Join Friends of Trees' SEED THE FUTURE campaign in restoring Portland's urban forest. Together, we will plant 144,000 trees and seedlings by the year 2001. It's good for the environment, it's good for your neighborhood and it's good for you. Each of us makes a difference.
