ANIMALS

TRANSITION

Liza auf Robinhill headed for the rainbow bridge on June 29. Liza was born near Salem, Ore., and lived almost all of her life of 15-plus years in Portland. Liza, elkhound extraordinaire, is survived by her moms, Nicki Nicolo and Joyce Mills, of Portland, and numerous human "aunts" and "uncles" from her extended pack. Liza lived as a house dog with companion and guard dog duties. She loved the beach, the woods and Gabriel Park. Liza proudly participated in gay pride marches until she became too elderly to walk the route. She possessed a highly developed gaydar mechanism and was a keen judge of human character. Her spirit, intelligence, playfulness and love for her humans will be missed.
