Oregon artists and AIDS

Lest We Forget: A Dialogue on AIDS, a site-specific installation by openly gay Portland sculptor Mike E. Walsh will rest in the Gallery at Stevenson Union at Southern Oregon University in Ashland from Jan. 4 till Feb. 5.

Lest We Forget: A Dialogue on AIDS by Mike E. Walsh is followed by a men-only "Play Party and Clippers Party," at a to-be-announced location till 2 a.m.

Saturday begins with a field trip to the Northwest Historical Military Collector's Show, 8900 N. Vancouver Ave., from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday evening offers a Dress Mess Uniform Dinner—dress uniforms and dress leather encouraged, but not required—at 12th Avenue Grill, 1135 S.W. Washington St. Cocktails are at 6 p.m., followed by dinner at 7 p.m. Dessert will be a uniform party at Eagle PDX, 1300 W. Burnside St., from 9 p.m. to midnight.

Sunday winds down with brunch at C.C. Slaughters, 219 N.W. Davis St., from 11 a.m.

The piece, which relates the impact of AIDS on Oregon's artistic community, includes photographs of dancers, actors and visual artists who have died of HIV-related illnesses. Among the artists remembered are actor Rex Rabold, director-designer Ric Young, actor-director-producer Peter Fornara, actor Michael Kerras, and director-stage manager Terry Nelson.

The installation will be open to the public Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m., and from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. on Saturday. For more information, call the university at (541) 552-6465.

Alternative: Straying from what is considered normal: different; the choice between two mutually exclusive possibilities. To say, "I am alternative," is to say, "I am leading a different lifestyle from mainstream society: honoring diversity, building community and creating a lifestyle that promotes the health and well-being of our planet."

Portland's Alternative Realtors represent an appealing alternative for those individuals who prefer not to work with a conventional salesperson. We support our local community, organic agriculture, all recycling efforts, and networking to create a healthier environment.

It is our mission to bring integrity and trust into the real estate profession while creating lifelong relationships with the people in our community.

We are Portland's Alternative Realtors.
