

JO does OK on SM profile

TO THE EDITOR:

I am writing to thank Just Out for L. S. Loving's story ["Falcon's Flight," Just Out, Nov. 6].

As an SM activist, I want to thank you for your positive coverage of my community.

I think this story provided a valuable service by giving Ms. Oregon Leather the opportunity to educate readers about alternative sexual practices.

Thanks for the memories

TO THE EDITOR:

This is just to let Just Out know how much we have appreciated the calendar over the years, and the wonderful article about the First Tuesday Coffeehouse's final performance ["Till Last Tuesday," Just Out, Nov. 20]. We had a great turnout and an upbeat celebration of our 10-plus years.

We want to thank all the performers...and the many years of quality sound from Janna MacAuslan and Alternative Sound. The most important thanks goes to the community and the many fine women performers who have shared their talents. I hope to continue hearing and seeing women actively pursuing their dreams and sharing their music, poetry, theater and arts with our community.

To [coffeehouse co-founder] Cindy Zrinyi, my friend and family for many years, thank you for sharing this experience.

Many have asked what will we do now that the coffeehouse has ended. I am sure Cindy will continue being a positive force in the community through the Portland Lesbian Choir, and I will continue to perform with Barb Galloway at least until we get the call from Rosie or Oprah to perform on their shows.

correction

Due to an editing error, the Dec. 12 article "Keeping the Faith" misidentified gay Mormon activist Rick Fernandez. His surname is not Hernandez, as it appeared in the article. Just Out regrets the error.

just asking

Recently Just Out sent a representative to the Rosetown Ramblers' monthly country western dance to ask attendees, "Do you believe in love at first sight?"

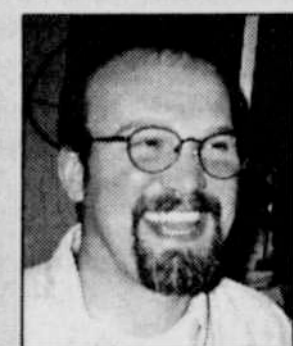

JOHN OSHIN
Portland
Computer technician

"Yes, I do, because I know a lot of people who have done it. The physical attraction can start a relationship, but sustaining it requires a meeting of the minds."

KARIN KELLEY
Portland
Rosetown Rambler

"Yes, definitely. I've been with the same woman for 18 years and the first time that I saw her I was in love."

TROY BRYAN
Portland
Upholsterer-housewife

"No, I believe in lust at first sight. The last time it took a year and $25,000 to find out it didn't work."

ANNE UEBELACKER
Portland
World famous square-dance caller

"Yes, I totally think there's love at first sight. No question! (Based on personal experience.)"

BOB HOWELL
Portland
Single electrician

"Yes, it's happened to me—but it wasn't mutual. One of life's learning experiences."

RISA KRIVÉ
Portland
Writer

"Yes, I believe in love at first sight, second sight, hindsight and in every other infinite visionary way."
