HELP WANTED

Part-time Multicultural Gay/Bi Men's Outreach Educator (new position)

It's a new day at Cascade AIDS Project the leading community-based HIV organization in Oregon and Southwest Washington. We have new leadership, financial health, business strength, marketing savvy and strategic plans for programs and services. A recent reorganization, newly created positions, and anticipated departures create an exceptional opportunity to join our staff and team.

Responsibilities: Conduct HIV outreach and education with Gay and Bisexual African American and Latino men. Coordinate outreach in public sex environments, bars and other community venues. Position involves risk assessments, harm reduction education, and referral. Conduct community outreach, education, and advocacy to increase access for men who have sex with men of color to resources, information, and services.

Requirements: Two or more years work in public health/education/social services/related field or bachelor's degree in a related field; computer proficiency with MS Office; good communication and interpersonal skills; experience working with diverse and disenfranchised populations, primarily gay and bisexual men and communities of color. Previous work experience with HIV and bilingual Spanish skills preferred.

Compensation: Part-time salary range from $10,500 to $12,500, depending on qualifications and experience; employer-paid health, dental, long-term disability and life insurance; generous vacation; tax-deferred annuity plan; and option of a flextime schedule.

Mail or fax cover letter, resume and salary history to:
