

DIVERSIONS

1300 W. Burnside St. The evening will include raffles, snacks and live entertainment. Contestants may enter the night of the contest and will compete in a variety of different looks. The first Mr. Eagle PDX, Tony Frazier, has completed a successful year as the title holder. He represented Portland at the International Mr. Leather contest in May and placed seventh out of 60 participants. Call the Eagle at 503-241-0105 for more information.

Beautiful evening

The ever-popular Portland singer/songwriter Lynn Frances Anderson returns to St. Johns Pub at 8 p.m. Oct. 7 to fill the house with her heart-felt songs. She's sure to include tunes from her latest album, Beautiful Morning. Anderson usually sells out the pub, located at 8203 N. Ivanhoe St., so get your ticket early. The cost is $10 from Fastix or www.lynnfrancesanderson.com.

Urban renewal

In the mid-1930s artist Ed Quigley worked for the Works Progress Administration painting murals of Oregon history on the walls of Northeast Portland's Irvington School. Last year these exquisite images were vandalized with spray paint, and a fund-raising effort got under way to repair and clean them. Art restoration expert Hiawatha Johnson to the rescue! He spent part of the summer working on the murals, which are located inside the front door of the school at 1320 N.E. Brazee St.

Herstorical love

Lesbian author Mary Sharratt has scheduled

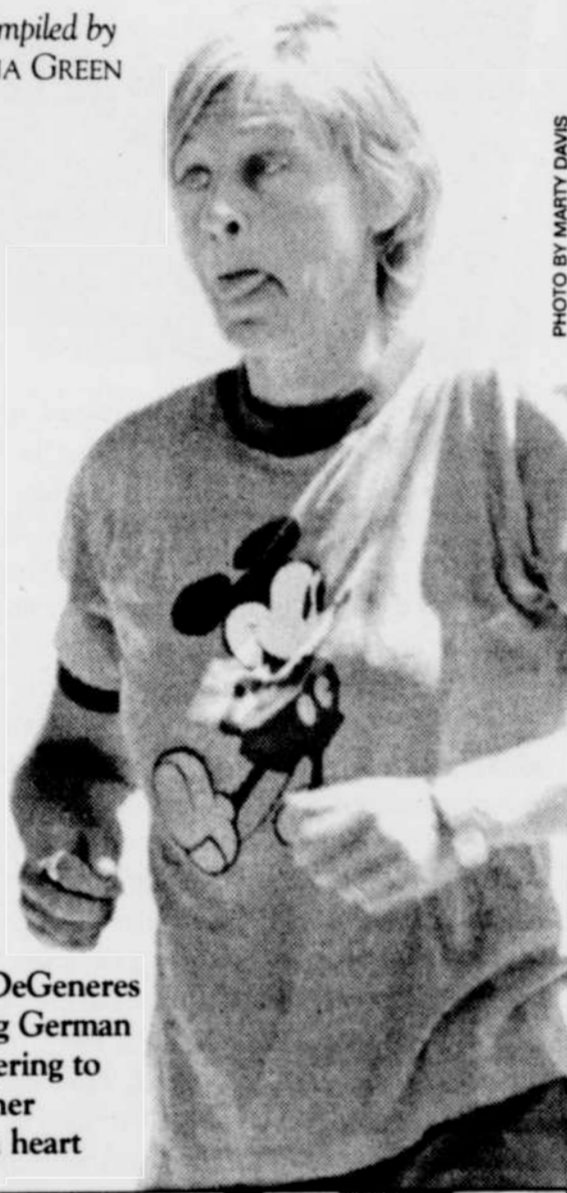

two upcoming readings from her highly praised debut novel, Summit Avenue, a historical coming-of-age love story set during World War I. She reads 7 p.m. Oct. 9 at In Other Words, 3734 S.E. Hawthorne Blvd., and 7:30 the next night at Twenty-Third Avenue Books, 1015 N.W. 23rd Ave.

Don't feel sorry for her Dept.

This just in: Ellen DeGeneres is soothing her broken heart tooling around Los Angeles in her brand new, blue-topped Mercedes convertible, license plate: EllenDG. According to Momma Betty, she's got a nice new gal pal sitting beside her. How do you spell r-e-b-o-u-n-d? [T]
