Saucy lesbians
cook up a fund-raiser

Everyone is invited to a Spaghetti Dinner to benefit the No on 9 Campaign on Oct. 21 at the Metropolitan Community Church of Portland, 2400 N.E. Broadway. Sponsored by the Lesbian Community Project, the event also features a full evening of entertainment. Slated to appear are the Portland Lesbian Choir, Galloway and Luckett, Theresa Demarest, comedian Pagan A. Thomsen and, last but not least, champion hand whistler Sally Cohn. The venue is wheelchair accessible. The event will be sign interpreted and feature speakers from No on 9 and the Northwest Rainbow Alliance of the Deaf. The feeding frenzy begins at 6 p.m. and lasts until 9 p.m. or until the sauce runs out—whichever comes first! A $5-$10 donation is requested.

Catch the Gypsy Boys
having fun

Film fans flock to fest

Don't miss the last weekend! Sensory Perceptions presents the fourth annual Lesbian/Gay/Bi/Trans Film Festival through Oct. 22 at Cinema 21, 616 N.W. 21st Ave. On Oct. 20, meet Aimée and Jaguar, followed by the Gypsy Boys. On Oct. 21, don't miss Eban and Charley, produced and shot in Oregon by some Portland filmmakers. The controversial film depicts the relationship between a 29-year-old man and a 15-year-old deaf boy. The festival concludes Oct. 22 with Margaret Cho's concert film I'm the One That I Want, followed by a party across the street at the Gypsy. Tickets are on sale at In Other Words, Gai-Pied and Balloons on Broadway. For more info, pick up a program, call 503-242-0818 or mouse on over to www.sensoryperceptions.org.

So what if it's Tuesday?

Halloween is one of our queer holidays, and we should make a point of having some serious fun, even if it does fall on a week-night! So drag an outfit from the closet and head out for a good time.

Jog's, located at 2512 N.E. Broadway, is celebrating with horror movies, trick-or-treating and drink specials all day and night.

The Egyptian Club keeps it real by partying Oct. 31 with a costume bash, a special show with dancers galore and lots of prizes for best get-ups. Three bucks gets you in the door at 3701 S.E. Division St.

If the Tuesday thing is too big a problem, spook on over to the Stargate Lounge at Chopsticks Express II, 2651 E. Burnside St., which is throwing its Karaoke Halloween Party from 8 p.m. until 1 a.m. Oct. 28. Go in costume and earn the $1 drink special.

And on Oct. 29, Jog's gets a head start on Halloween with a fire show and costume strippers. The fun begins at 8 p.m., and there is no cover charge.

She'll give you a Cho-rtling good time

She's the one that we want

If you miss Margaret Cho's movie at the film fest, it returns to Cinema 21 for a limited run Oct. 27 through Nov. 2. A self-proclaimed bisexual, she details her adventures in Hollywood as the first Asian American to have her own sitcom. Other raw material includes family ties and struggles with personal demons. Yet, somehow she makes it all really funny—or perhaps we're just relieved it's not our life!
